Queen, Duke Take Dip In Caribbean

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP)—Thousands of native sugar cane workers scrambled from the fields and lined the highway Wednesday for a glimpse of Queen Elizabeth as she rode in an open silver-grey limousine under a broiling sun.

The natives screamed out greetings and waved at the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh on the 120-mile ride from Montego Bay to the British colony's capital city here. The Queen, wearing a short-sleeved thin silk dress and matching blue hat, smiled back.

Along the way, the Queen and duke changed into bathing suits in chalets specially fitted for them at the Silver Sands Club and splashed happily in the Caribbean.

The Queen showed no signs of weariness.

After a three-day stay on this Caribbean island, the largest in the British West Indies, the Royal couple will set sail in the luxury liner Gothic for Britain's Pacific Ocean lands on their six-month world tour.

Smiling and looking cool despite a temperature well in the 80's, the Queen took the salute from the guard of honor against a backdrop of towering coconut palms and mountains ringing the blue bay. She is the first reigning British sovereign to visit this colony.

Sir Hugh Foot, Jamaica's governor, who wore a white uniform with giant plumed helmet, stepped forward to greet the Queen as she stepped from the plane. Elizabeth wore white gloves, peep-toe white shoes and carried a white handbag.

The duke wore sunglasses and pilot wings over an admiral's white uniform.

White-haired William Bustamante, Jamaica's prime minister, was introduced to the Queen by Foot. In turn, Bustamante introduced her to representatives of the colony's executive council and delegates from other West Indian territories.

E. H. Laike of Antigua handed Elizabeth an address of welcome on behalf of all her West Indian territories. It said, in part:

"It is indeed our dearest wish that we should build a new dominion here in the West Indies to take an honorable place with the other dominions of Your Majesty's world-wide commonwealth."

Plans for a federated British West Indies were drawn up at a recent conference in London. They aim at eventual dominion status for the scattered Caribbean islands.

Half an hour after the airliner touched down, the Royal couple started their drive with Royal Standard flying on the open car. At the wheel was Police Sgt. Bertram Collins, 50, who has driven the Duke of Windsor, Sir Winston Churchill and the colony's governors for the last 29 years.

The Queen and the duke spent some time in the clear water before drying off in the hot sun.

They lunched at the beach club restaurant with a party of more than 20, including Bustamante and Sir Hugh and Lady Foot.

Logger Killed In Accident Near Youbou

DUNCAN—A 54-year-old logger was killed almost instantly when crushed by a log at Camp Six, Youbou, Tuesday afternoon.

Melvin Howe suffered crushing injuries to the head and chest, while bucking a log. Reports from the B.C. Forest Products division at Youbou are that a log which was resting against the one which Mr. Howe was bucking came down on top of him. He was working alone at the time.

He leaves a wife and family at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. An inquest will be held at Youbou on Tuesday, with Coroner Col. J. H. Boyd of Lake Cowichan presiding. Remains are at Hirst Funeral Chapel, Duncan, pending funeral arrangements.

Throng in Edinburgh Boos Anti-Nationalist

EDINBURGH (Reuters) — A crowd of 500 Wednesday mobbed a police reservist whose evidence helped convict four young Nationalists on a charge of illegally possessing explosives.

Earlier, a Scottish jury found the four men innocent of conspiring against the government, but guilty of possessing dynamite. The four—Robert Duncan Watt, 22; Malcolm MacAlister, 24; Owen Gillan, 27, and Raymond Forbes, 23—were each sentenced to one year in jail.

Cullen, principal state witness, claimed to have won the confidence of the quartet and pretended to share in a plot to blow up Saint Andrew's House, government headquarters in Scotland.

The four men claimed they knew all along that Cullen was a police agent and led him on in an effort to expose "Gestapo-like" police methods of curbing Scottish nationalism.

Parley To Study Political Unity

THE HAGUE, Holland (Reuters)—Foreign ministers of the "Little Europe" countries will open their conference here today regardless of the French cabinet crisis caused largely by a split over a united continent.

The conference has been called to discuss proposals for a "political community" of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

But all the delegates feel the need to avoid decisions or statements which might alienate French political parties and thus lessen prospects that France will ratify the European army treaty. This treaty is to bind the same states into a common defense structure.

In view of the cabinet crisis in Paris, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault will not join his five colleagues here. His place will be taken by Alexandre Parodi, secretary-general of the French foreign ministry.

The basis for conference discussions is a report, as yet unpublished, which was drafted by the foreign ministers' deputies in Rome last month.

The deputies' report is on a draft constitution for the political community, worked out by legislators from the six countries concerned. The constitution envisaged a six-power executive committee or cabinet with real but limited powers, a European parliament and a watch-dog committee of national cabinet ministers.

Grinding Crash Kills Two

Two men died when this transport truck, carrying an 18-ton load, climbed over the tops of two stalled cars in heavy fog near Montreal. Alcide Hanault, 37, and Krisopher Hanson, 45, both of Montreal, were killed in one car. Six other persons were injured. —(CP photo.)

Jenner Protests Terms For Gouzenko Interview

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada Wednesday informed the United States that she is willing to arrange a secret meeting between Igor Gouzenko — if Gouzenko agrees—and "any person" designated by the U.S. government.

But Senator William Jenner, chairman of the U.S. Senate internal security sub-committee, balked at one stipulation laid down by Canada: That it must give its approval before any Gouzenko testimony could be made public.

The Canadian reply to the second U.S. request that Jenner's committee be permitted to question Gouzenko was tabled in the Commons. This reply and Mr. Pearson's 3,500-word outline of Canada's position in the controversy made it clear the government thinks any meeting between Gouzenko and the committee would be fruitless because all his information has long since been given to U.S. authorities.

The reply said such a meeting must be held "under Canadian auspices" — obviously meaning Canada.

The reply disclosed that in 1949 Canada arranged a secret meeting in Ottawa between Gouzenko and representatives of a U.S. Senate judiciary subcommittee. The interview unearthed no new information whatsoever, Mr. Pearson said. It was held on the understanding Canada would have to approve any testimony made public.

Gouzenko, meanwhile, said for the third time that he is ready and willing to meet subcommittee members—in Canada and in secret.

Mr. Pearson, speaking before packed galleries, disclosed that several years ago Canada passed confidentially to the U.S. evidence from Gouzenko that the secretary to then U.S. State Secretary Stettinius was a Soviet agent.

In Washington, Senator Jenner said he felt his group "could not receive evidence vital to the security to the United States, and the United States alone, and commit itself not to make it available to Congress if necessary."

Information laid before Congress becomes public.

Jenner said he would be willing to send a sub-committee member to talk to Gouzenko in Canada and find out what information he has about espionage in the United States. Then, he said, the sub-committee would like to "address itself" to the question of what to do about the evidence.

Mr. Pearson was told of the Jenner statement Wednesday night. He said: "We came to our decision after careful consideration. We will look carefully at any new proposal that may come from the state department."

Other government sources said it is extremely unlikely Canada will back down on this stand. The government had just made an important statement in the Commons on its position and there had been expressions of approval from all sections of the opposition.

Railway Men Demanding Wage Boost

MONTREAL (CP)—The 100,000 member International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen (Ind.) announced Wednesday it will demand a $1.35-a-day wage increase, a five-day week and other benefits in its new labor contract with Canada's railway companies.

The present contract expires February 16, 1954.

FBI Holds Three In Record Theft

Ex-Convict, Wife, Shy Son In 'Rags to Riches' Case

BOSTON (UP)—A jobless ex-convict, his wife and shy student son were arrested yesterday in connection with history's largest armored car robbery, a $681,700 theft that apparently helped pay for the boy's engineering education.

The FBI charged that George Douglas O'Brien, 43-year-old convicted burglar, was one of the thieves who looted a U.S. Trucking Corp. truck in daylight in a busy Danvers Square 18 months ago.

"RAGS TO RICHES"

The husband and wife were arrested at the $25,000 home at suburban Wollaston where they made a "rags to riches" move early this year from a third floor walkup in Boston's crowded Dorchester section.

The boy was seized on the Tech campus at Cambridge where fellow engineering students and faculty members had assumed he was the brilliant son of some well-to-do business man.

FBI agents who raided the O'Brien home recovered a "substantial" part of the loot, according to assistant U.S. attorney Edward D. Hassan.

Hassan said that "others" definitely were involved in the Danvers theft the loot of which exceeded by $251,000 the previous record armored car robbery. That occurred in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1934.

Brought before a U.S. commissioner for arraignment, the father and son kept a tight-lipped silence and covered their faces when photographers attempted to get their pictures. Mrs. O'Brien, a plain matronly-looking housewife, stared stonily ahead.

There was little in the O'Brien's home life in the residential section of Wollaston to suggest that they were suspected of complicity in the biggest cash theft since the $1,219,000 Brink's hold-up here two years earlier.

J. J. Kelly, special agent in charge of the Boston FBI office, said "no comment" when asked if the senior O'Brien was a suspect in that case.

O'Brien was charged with actually taking part in the theft. His wife and son were charged with receiving stolen money.

Drew Asks Calm

OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition leader Drew Wednesday called for "self-discipline and restraint" in throwing criticism across international boundaries.

Speaking in the Commons, he decried "confusion" that had grown up in the past week over U.S. requests to question Igor Gouzenko about Harry Dexter White.

He suggested the incident could do no good to relations between Canada and the United States.

Mr. Drew was particularly critical of a suggestion from one U.S. speaker that External Affairs Minister Pearson — a political opponent of Mr. Drew — might have Communist sympathies.

"I do not believe," he said, "that any sensible Canadian thinks for one moment that Mr. Pearson has any sympathy whatever for Communism . . . every one of us resents an imputation of that kind against the secretary of state for external affairs.

"If there could be this much disturbance over such a relatively minor occurrence," Mr. Drew said, "I shudder to think what might happen if the almost incredible event occurred that we were to have some real misunderstanding with the U.S."

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, said the Commons should "back up" the government's position. The House should make it abundantly clear that it has confidence in Mr. Pearson.

"No one with any sense whatsoever could charge him with any degree of friendship with Communism or the imperial Soviet Union," Mr. Coldwell said.

Third Power Queried FBI Report

Canada Not Involved in Question about White

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson politely rapped FBI director J. Edgar Hoover on the knuckles Wednesday for saying it was a "high-placed Canadian source which in 1946 had questioned the loyalty of the late Harry Dexter White.

Mr. Pearson said the source was a security liaison officer of a friendly third power. He did not identify the source. He said the information concerning White had originated with the FBI itself, which apparently had not recognized this when it was returned from Ottawa by the third power's security officer.

Hoover said in a letter to the White House in 1946—the letter, to Canada's annoyance, was made public last week—that a "high-placed" Canadian source had sought assurance from the FBI concerning White's loyalty. U.S. Attorney-General Herbert Brownell charged November 6 that former President Truman made White a director of the International Monetary Fund while knowing White was a Soviet agent.

Mr. Pearson said the RCMP in the winter of 1945-46 received a message from the FBI saying it appeared White might be a Soviet agent and asking for possible corroboration. The RCMP had no evidence.

In 1946, when White's name was before the U.S. Senate for appointment to the International Monetary Fund, the official of the third power sent his message to the FBI.

This message, Mr. Pearson said, apparently was designed to find out whether the White mentioned in the FBI warning was the same person nominated for the fund. This "informal message" might well have been passed to Hoover as Canadian information, which it was not, he said.

Thousands of Trees Bound for U.S.

Christmas greenery from British Columbia is on its way to markets throughout the western United States. The first of 19 railway carloads of Christmas trees and holly was shipped from Langford Tuesday. The 5,500 trees were cut on Salt Spring Island and trucked to Langford, where Mrs. R. Pigeon and Stuart Walsh, Los Angeles agent, examined them before loading. Next week loading operations move to Duncan. J. Hofert, Ltd., of Kamloops is handling the contract.

Heavy Quake Hits Japan; No Casualties Reported

Lights went out, dishes were smashed and thousands of frightened Japanese awoke and ran into the streets when the temblor struck. However, police reported no casualties or heavy damage.

An after-shock shook Tokyo six hours later, and officials said there would probably be other after-shocks.

Tidal waves resulting from the quake plucked fishing boats from beaches and swept them out to sea.

The earthquake was recorded on the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory seismograph near Victoria as a shock of 7½ to 8 magnitude—one of the largest ever recorded.

No quake in history has recorded more than 8½ magnitude, observatory officials said.

The shock was recorded here at 10 a.m. yesterday (PST), 10 minutes after it hit Japan. Three hours later the seismograph was still trembling.

Forceps Mislaid Inside Woman

EDMONTON (CP)—An Edmonton woman was awarded $1,000 damages in Supreme Court Wednesday in a suit against Dr. L. A. Miller, who she said left a pair of 6½-inch forceps in her abdomen after an operation.

The operation was performed in September, 1947, and the forceps were removed in a second operation in November, 1952.

The woman, Mrs. Alois Gloning, said she suffered discomfort throughout the period the forceps were in her stomach, and at times was unable to do her housework.

Mrs. Gloning testified before Chief Justice C. C. McLaurin that during an examination in April, 1952, she complained of a noticeable lump on her left side and was told by Dr. Miller it was a swollen gland that "would go away."

She said that during another examination in late October, 1952, when she complained about back pains, Dr. Miller recommended she visit the cancer clinic. X-rays there disclosed the presence of the forceps.

Driving to Berlin on Hitler's Autobahn Hardly Joy Ride

BERLIN (NANA) — Come with me on a ride down Nightmare Highway, behind the Iron Curtain. This is the Helmstedt-Berlin Autobahn, bomb-pocked old Hitler super-highway that is one of the prize pawns of the cold war. This is the main road through Red Germany from the western world to Berlin.

It is guarded by surly, unpredictable Russians and arrogant, spiteful East German "people's police." It is 120 miles long. There is nobody to help you if you have a breakdown. A flat tire can bring arrest. Getting lost can land you in a Soviet jail for weeks, even months.

This highway has become a kind of cold war barometer. When the cold war thaws a bit, the traffic flows relatively smoothly. But when thunder rolls out of the Kremlin, the screws are turned on the autobahn until traffic is brought to a crawl.

On both sides of the autobahn near the Allied checkpoint a whole little community has grown up based on the cold war — restaurants, sleazy hotels, money-exchange booths, filling stations, a garage, a wrecker service, warehouses and sheds, and even a cabaret.

At first it seems that the Russians may have reimposed the blockade. But no, we are told, the line is moving.

East German people's police are clearing Berlin-bound trucks at the rate of one every six minutes, and westbound carriers one every 10 or 12 minutes. Not very fast, but still not bad. When the heat is on, a single truck may take 10 hours to clear the Soviet checkpoint.

The truck drivers all know each other. They operate their own intelligence service, with each driver briefing the others on conditions at the checkpoint.

One day the Russians turn every truck inside out, the next day they only look for specific items, perhaps scrap metal and machine tools. There is a team of tough inspectors on the job. It can take hours. Or the inspectors are "soft" and the checking is little more than a formality.

Once past the Soviet checkpoint Berlin lies straight ahead.

Now there are no garages, nothing on the autobahn. If our car breaks down we can only advise a passing motorist and ask him to report to the Allied military police who will then ask for Russian permission to send a wrecker.

We are expected in Berlin within three hours. If we don't arrive the military police will give us an hour and then begin questioning others who passed us on the road.

After the fifth hour a wrecker combs the road and after the eighth hour a Russian-speaking Allied liaison officer goes to Soviet military headquarters at Karlshorst. The assumption—and it is invariably correct—is that we have strayed off the road and been arrested.

If they follow form they will deny they are holding us, but the Allied liaison man will keep on pressing and after a few days the Russians will then recall they are holding us after all, and turn us loose.

Soon we reach the famous Elbe Bridge.

The second lap of the drive takes us across the great sandy plain of Brandenberg.

Eventually we pass the Potsdam cut-off. Ahead is Babelsberg, the Soviet checkpoint before Berlin. Soviet officers shout orders to the people's police.

There are the same endless lines of waiting trucks as at Helmstedt. A loudspeaker shrills "peace . . . freedom . . . down with the warmongers . . . German unity." There are billboards and banners along the highway and over it.

A hundred yards or so farther on we reach the American checkpoint and the journey's end. The American sergeant glances through our papers and asks in matter-of-fact tones, "everything go smooth?"

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

THE threat of state ownership is rearing is ugly head again.

A parking lot manager complains that there are too few parking restrictions in his part of town.

He says the city let his parking lot get started, then stayed in business by allowing all-day parking on the street in some places.

Imagine the nerve of the city, acting as though the people owned the streets! These socialists on city council are getting out of hand.

What do they mean by using the taxpayers' money to compete with private enterprise—building streets at public expense and keeping them open to all, while operators of parking lots struggle to make a living?

The time has come (as the electrical power companies say in their $100,000-a-page advertisements in American magazines) to halt the march of creeping socialism.

Or is it the creep of marching socialism? Anyway, the time has come.

* * *

Private enterprise made this country great. And private enterprise doesn't just mean big corporations. It means little guys like you and me—little guys like Joe Retch.

Joe had a humble job in a parking-meter factory. He worked eight hours a day on an assembly line, making one part of a parking meter. That one part was the little lever that prevents your coin from going inside the meter—makes sure that the dial keeps registering "Violation," no matter how hard you try to put a coin in it.

Joe was only a little man in a little job. But out of his $100-a-week salary, he managed to save enough money to buy a parking meter and set up business on his own.

Like all truly great men, Joe wasn't ashamed to start small. He bought part of a new street that was just starting up, and put in his parking meter there. It was only a small street—scarcely more than a lane. But Joe showed initiative. He threw barriers across every side road except the one that led to his street. Cars began to pour in. Business was so good that Joe bought another parking meter, and another.

Pretty soon he owned the whole street. And as time went on, by shrewd management and sound business practices, he gained control of all the streets in town. Today he owns and operates 9,282 parking meters and 33,282 loading zones.

* * *

The success story of Joe Retch is typical of a thousand others. It could be your success story—under our free enterprise system.

In some towns of Canada, however, the dead hand of state ownership has seized the streets. The publicly-owned streets operate at a loss in competition with legitimate private enterprise. There are too few parking restrictions. On the roofs of some downtown buildings, helicopters are permitted to land absolutely free of charge, and stay as long as they like.

It is YOU the public who are paying for this. YOUR money keeps these all-day parking zones open. you should end this state of affairs now. Place the streets in the hands of efficient, business-managed free-enterprise companies at once.

Baked Clay Pots Have Long History

BY M. V. CHESNUT, FRHS

The green-fingered members of the family, both men and women, have been fooling around with baked clay pots for the last 3,000 years, ever since they were used to hold ornamental plants for the decoration of Egyptian temples for the various festivals, and in all that time, the materials from which the pots are made have changed very little. The red earthenware plant pot now in use has been reduced to such simplicity of design, few gardeners realize that the tapered construction is not the result of chance, but designed for sheer utility.

The tapering is carefully planned to allow for easy storage and transport, and easy ejection of the plant when necessary. It is a delight to see the ease and skill with which an experienced gardener "knocks" a plant out of its pot just to take a quick glance at the health of the root system. The tapering also allows a freer movement of air when a number of plants are standing on a bench in a greenhouse.

In the days before electric refrigeration, porous unglazed earthen pots were used in the tropics to keep drinking water cooled, the evaporation of the water through the pores providing the cooling action. In the same way, the roots of a plant in a clay flower pot are kept much cooler in hot weather than those in the modern plastic pots, although watering has to be more frequent.

KEEP POT CLEAR

To be fully effective, however, the pot must be kept porous, and not painted over, nor prettied up with foil, or allowed to become covered with a coating of slime outside. It is necessary to scrub pots in clean water once or twice a year in order that they can function properly. Pots which have become very dirty and saturated with the waste products from the plant roots, will destroy the tiny root hairs of other plants which may be put in it. These acid excretions from the roots are so strong, they have been known to etch a design on polished marble!

Plain water and a stiff scrubbing brush are sufficient to remove surface dirt, but a preliminary soaking for a few hours will loosen the dirt and dissolve the root acids and soluble salts. Don't soak the pots for longer than 24 hours, though—after all, they are only made of baked earth, and prolonged soaking will leave them very fragile.

POTS NEED SOAKING

New pots should never be used for potting until they have been soaked in clean water for a couple of hours. This soaking not only cleanses the pot of any salts left after the baking process, but allows the baked clay to become saturated. If a plant is planted in a new, dry pot straight from the kiln, the pot will absorb water from the soil at such a rate that it is impossible to meet the demands of both pot and plant without washing all the goodness out of the soil. The moisture demands of the pot are so great, it will cause the ball of soil to shrink, leaving a crack between the soil and the sides of the pot. When you water, the moisture runs down this crack and away, and never penetrates the ball of soil to the plant roots.

REPOT PLANT

Once this has occurred, nothing can be done but to repot the plant, preferably in fresh soil, in a well-soaked pot.

Never nest too many pots together — the pressure on the walls becomes too great, and you will have casualties. Flower pots should always be stored either upside down, or on their sides in a spot where they can't roll.

Motorist Dodges Scottish Express

School Report Cards Explained to Parents

Mysteries of school report cards are explained to interested parent during one of the many teacher-parent interviews held this week at Willows School. Shown above, from left to right, are Mrs. J. A. Watson, parent of Willows School pupil; T. N. Curtes, principal, and Miss M. Peatt, a teacher at the school. Teacher-parent conferences are being conducted at a number of elementary schools this week to give parents an opportunity to discuss the progress of their children with classroom teachers. School board officials estimate that some 3,500 parents will participate in individual conferences.

Architect Calls Copy-Cats Only Real Revolutionists

BY LAWRIE JOSLIN

Basil Spence, of Edinburgh and London, is an architect who can't understand why people feel they must be old-fashioned when it comes to architecture.

One of the leaders of his profession in Britain, he has designed the new cathedral to be built at Coventry to replace the one destroyed by German bombs during the Second World War.

Mr. Spence arrived in Victoria yesterday near the end of a three-month tour of Canada, soliciting financial support for the Coventry project.

"Architects," according to Mr. Spence, "should study the past and try to unearth principles and apply them to conditions now in existence."

"The greatest mistake is not to study the past, but it's a greater mistake to copy the past," declared the architect.

Mr. Spence, whose design for Coventry Cathedral stirred controversy because it was said to deviate from conventional cathedral design, holds that he himself is a traditional architect while copy-cat architects, who pattern their work solely on the past, are the real revolutionists.

ONCE MODERN

Mr. Spence described his Coventry design as traditional because it is modern as were the designs for all the old cathedrals when they were built in the past.

"It is only in the last century that it became the fashion to copy the old styles—I call this the revolution," he said. "I claim to be a traditional architect in the true sense of the word."

Mr. Spence said he has planned to add to the 14th century Coventry Cathedral in a 20th-century way in the same manner in which the nave of Gloucester Cathedral, which was 11th century, was added to in the 14th century.

"Both these styles were modern styles when they were done," he explained.

The 20th-century so-called modern style fits present-day needs, he said, because it has been found cheaper and easier to build with the tools of our time.

Mr. Spence said he had seen some "extremely good" architecture in Western Canada. He hadn't had an opportunity to get a close look at Victoria buildings before being questioned last night, but he was pleased by the setting for the Inner Harbor. He said it reminded him of a beautiful English square.

While in Vancouver the architect was impressed by the design of two churches—St. Anselm's on the UBC campus and St. Anthony's in North Vancouver—the UBC gymnasium and the Massey Gold Medal office building occupied by a construction firm.

MANY TALKS

Mr. Spence will be here until Saturday. He will address a Rotary luncheon meeting today with the Provost of Coventry, Very Rev. R. T. Howard. He will speak at a Lions Club luncheon Friday.

He will address a meeting in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. Friday in support of Victoria's Christ Church Cathedral building fund and explain in detail his design for Coventry Cathedral.

Mr. Spence graduated in architecture from Edinburgh University in 1932. He holds one of the silver medals awarded each year by the Royal Institute of British Architects to the leading student graduating in architecture from a British Commonwealth university. He is an associate of the Royal Academy and an associate of the Royal Scottish Academy, a combination which has never before occurred.

He served in the army for six years during the Second World War and was mentioned in dispatches for his part in action in Normandy.

New Continental Loses $601,361

CALGARY (BUP)—New Continental Oil Co. of Canada lost $601,361 during the fiscal year ended March 31.

Sir Robert Watson-Watt said in the directors' report to shareholders that the company received a gross revenue of $1,250,541 during the period but lost $601,361 after all items such as taxes, depletion and depreciation were subtracted.

North Korea, China Conclude Agreement

TOKYO (AP) — The North Korean delegation headed by Marshal Kim Il Sung left Peiping for home yesterday, Peiping Radio reported. Kim signed an agreement for "economic and cultural co-operation" between Communist China and North Korea Monday. The pact possibly had military codicils, but if so, they were not disclosed.

Auction-Bazaar and Fun Fair Successfully Staged by PTAs

A highly successful auction bazaar at which more than $200 was raised was held recently by the Colwood PTA in the Community Hall.

The event was opened by H. J. Bruch, MLA, who spoke on parent-teacher activities. Frank Kilshaw donated his services as auctioneer.

E. Peatt of Colwood was the winner of a beautiful lamp.

Musical entertainment concluded the evening.

Farm Policy To Be Set At Sessions

The B.C. Federation of Agriculture, the voice of about 22,000 farmers in the province, opens its annual convention here today.

The resolutions passed in two days will be the policy of the federation, states President Alex Mercer, of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association.

WANT SOUND IDEAS

The federation strives to steer clear of "screwball ideas," he added. If the policy is a provincial matter it is handled through the federation, and if it is a federal matter the policy is sent to the Canadian Federation of Agriculture for action in Ottawa.

"I believe we have reason to think they appreciate fairness," Mr. Mercer said.

The federation represents virtually every branch of commodities from farming and includes representations from farmers' institutes throughout the province.

WELCOME BY MAYOR

At 4.30 p.m. deputy minister of agriculture, W. H. Robertson will present a trophy to the winner of the finals in a junior farmer public speaking contest.

Electric Wire Firms Charged as Combine

OTTAWA (CP) — Virtually the entire $124,000,000 Canadian electrical wire and cable manufacturing industry was accused Wednesday of having participated in an illegal price-fixing combine, extending over a period of some 41 years.

Ten companies, including the industry's "big four," were named in a 147-page report by special combines commissioner H. Carl Goldenberg who charged that the companies, by arranging to submit identical bids on tenders "vitiated and made a mockery" of competitive bidding.

The report, following an 18-month investigation, was made public by Justice Minister Garson who said he will study the document and seek legal advice before deciding whether court prosecutions will be launched.

Mr. Goldenberg, a Montreal lawyer, said the industry's "big four," Northern Electric, Phillips, Canada Wire and Cable and Canadian General Electric, played major roles in the combine to maintain prices and that the others participated to lesser degrees.

Mr. Goldenberg started investigations in May, 1952, at a time when Ottawa and Winnipeg hydro commissioners were complaining of receiving identical and non-competitive bids on tenders for electrical equipment.

He found the combine first started in 1912 when company representatives got together to make arrangements and agreements on common prices and other policies.

Named in the report are: Northern Electric Co. Ltd. of Montreal and Lachute, Que., a 58-year-old company and subsidiary of the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada.

Phillips Electrical Works Ltd. of Brockville, Ont., reported to have been controlled by Automatic Electric Co. of Chicago at the time of the inquiry, but now believed to have been purchased by British Insulated Callenders Cables Ltd. of London.

Cables, Conduits and Fittings Ltd. of St. Johns, Que., an independent company.

Triangle Conduit and Cable (Canada) Ltd. of Toronto. Four of its five directors are directors also of Triangle Conduit and Cable Co. Inc., a U.S. corporation.

Boston Insulated Wire and Cable Co. Ltd. of Hamilton, Ont. Shareholders of a U.S. company of the same name hold the controlling shares of the Canadian corporation.

Weapons Whittle Civilian Security

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Health Minister Martin, the cabinet member responsible for Canada's civil defense effort, said Wednesday that modern weapons "have whittled away the security once conferred on us by the simple facts of geography."

"No longer can we enjoy the sheltered isolation that was our sure protection in the past," he said.

Mr. Martin, discussing five years of civil defense in Canada, said civil defense organizations have been established in 558 communities across the country. In more than 100 of these, he added, the organizations are trained and operational; the remainder are in various stages of development.

To man community organizations, more than 133,000 people have been enrolled as civil defense workers. The federal government, he added, is training key personnel and instructors at the rate of 1,500 a year at Ottawa's Civil Defense College.

Until recent years, Mr. Martin said, obligations of Canadian citizenship were twofold: "To respect the rule of law in time of peace; and to defend our country abroad in time of war." He emphasized the word "abroad."

"But in the tragic event of any future war," he continued, "we may be required for the first time to share in defending our own communities, our own families and our own homes against direct enemy attack. Thus, civil defense has added a third dimension to citizenship."

"I would be derelict in my duty," he said, "if I did not report that, in some parts of Canada, the attention being given to the protection of the civilian population falls short of what I conceive to be our collective responsibility in the light of present world unrest."

IWA Threatening Labor Blockade

VANCOUVER (CP)—Officials of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO-CCL) Wednesday announced that a "complete labor blockade" will be imposed in the British Columbia Interior where 3,000 lumber workers have been on strike for two months.

A total of 9,000 are out of work because of the walkout.

Joe Morris, district president of the IWA, said the union will picket "every point where workers may be hired and entrained." The pickets will "advise that the Interior lumber industry is on strike," he said.

Morris said the IWA had been promised the support of the Alberta and Saskatchewan federations of labor and picketing would also be conducted in the two prairie provinces.

Bus depots and railway stations will be picketed and advertisements inserted in newspapers in the campaign.

"By means of press and radio advertising we will inform all the workers now in the Interior that they will be known throughout the entire trade union movement as 'scabs' if they accept strike-breaking employment," a union statement said. "We will appeal to them to keep their names clean with trade unions throughout the entire west."

Present basic wage in the industry is $1.29½ hourly. In the northern Interior the operators rejected a conciliation board majority recommendation of a six-cent-an-hour wage increase and other benefits and in the southern Interior the union rejected a three-cent-hourly wage increase recommendation.

Book Proves Theory

U.S. People Enjoy Hoax

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American people don't mind being hoaxed. As a matter of fact, they may even like it.

For proof:

On November 14, it was discovered that George Dupre of Calgary, supposedly true life hero of a fast-selling book, "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk," was a fake. He couldn't have had those lurid wartime adventures in France because he never had been in France.

Its author, Quentin Reynolds, moaned: "It looks like the greatest hoax ever perpetrated."

Its publishers, at Random House sorrowfully agreed. If you want your money back, they told buyers, you can have it.

And what has happened?

A survey shows that hardly anyone, maybe no one at all, has asked for his $2.75 back.

In fact, sales have been better than ever.

The whole thing came up because of a phone call from a fellow with a theory. "Did you know," he asked, "that the public likes to be gulled?" He said that was his theory, and he'd bet the figures on "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk" would prove it.

"No, we haven't had a single request from anyone for his money."

"I don't believe we have had a request for a refund. No, not one."

"None so far, so I don't suppose we will have any now."

Transport Taxed in U.S. For Thanksgiving Rush

BY UNITED PRESS

Transportation facilities of the United States were crowded Wednesday with travelers rushing to join their families for Thanksgiving dinner.

Americans throughout the world prepared for the annual observance and wherever they were, there was no doubt what the menu would be.

Turkey dinners were available to Americans wherever they were. Servicemen the world over will have the same many-course meal, including more than a pound of roast turkey for each man.

The forecast was not optimistic and rain and snow were falling over much of the United States as travelers took to planes, trains, buses and autos to reach their families.

President Eisenhower and his family were to lead the nation in observing its national holiday.

They were at Augusta, Ga., and turkey was to be the main item on their bill of fare.

Twenty-two U.S. soldiers were doomed to loneliness—by their own choice. They are the men who have chosen life in a prison camp in Korea in preference to the freedom established in America by the settlers who observed the first Thanksgiving.

The Communists claimed they were going to provide delicacies to the men, but there was no mention of turkey such as other Americans will eat less than 10 miles away.

Oddities

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — John Begue of WICS-TV has learned of another peril facing television announcers.

Last week, as part of a commercial, he took a knife and ripped apart two mattresses to reveal the voluminous interior foam padding. Tuesday, Begue learned that his two-year-old son, who watched the exhibition on the family's TV set, had duplicated his father's performance.

Changing the Constitution

THE prime minister's remarks to the National Federation of Liberal Women on amending the constitution are ambiguous in that they might easily prompt erroneous deductions. Certainly outsiders such as neighbors across the line, and probably even many people in our own country, will conclude therefrom that the United Kingdom still has some sort of suzerainty over Canada. That of course is entirely incorrect. This nation is as free to decide its own affairs as the air is to its people.

Mr. St. Laurent expressed the hope that soon Canada would be able to change its constitution in all respects without reference to the British parliament. As it is now, on matters affecting the joint interests of provincial and federal governments the enabling legislation must be passed at London. The prime minister should have explained why, however. He should have pointed out that Canadians have been unable to agree among themselves on what they want, and also that any reference to the Westminster parliament is for the latter a mere technicality. If the truth were known London would probably be as glad to be relieved of the formality of passing of legislation which for them is automatic and beyond control as the Privy Council was to be freed of the myriad appeals formerly placed before it.

To date any change in the BNA Act regarding provincial-federal rights requires the formal assent of the Westminster parliament only because federal and provincial authorities have been unable to agree on a formula for making the changes. This hiatus derives from a fact not too well appreciated, to wit, that Canada is a federation of provinces and that the BNA Act is an instrument that protects the prerogatives of the contracting parties to that federation. With ample reason for their reservations the provinces are reluctant to abdicate their rights and place in the hands of the central federal government at Ottawa the sole power to change the constitution. Inability to devise a method of amendment that will give all 11 governments of Canada a voice in making changes while protecting their individual interests is the sole reason for the present constitutional state of affairs.

The prime minister should have made this clear. It was unfair to Great Britain to imply as he did, or at least leave such an inference, that this country's autonomy was not complete and that it had to go cap in hand to London to have its constition changed. As a lawyer and a well informed minister of the crown he knows the constitutional position exactly, and one wonders why he chose to becloud the situation by presenting only half the picture.

Passing on the Right

THE Victoria Automobile Club has asked the city police for more rigid enforcement of the new provincial law against unnecessarily slow driving causing obstruction to the normal flow of traffic. In support of its request the club has pointed out that slow drivers "force" others to pass on the right. While no motorist is forced to break any law, there is much visual evidence that the practice of passing on the right is becoming increasingly common here.

Considerable misunderstanding exists on this matter. In many instances passing on the right may appear to be a common sense procedure; yet in all circumstances it remains illegal here. Some drivers who are aware of the law break it as a matter of convenience; but undoubtedly there are many who are unconscious of doing wrong. Two factors have contributed to this confusion. The first is that some time ago the City of Victoria applied for a change in the statutes which would have enabled a municipality to pass a by-law permitting right-hand passing in places where streets were marked out in four lanes. This may have led to the assumption that such a change had been authorized, whereas in fact the proposed amendment was rejected by the legislature. The other is that in Vancouver right-hand passing is permitted under that city's special charter. Everywhere else in the province, including Victoria, the prohibition stands, however.

There are some manifest absurdities in this rule. For example when the driver of one vehicle has signalled a left turn and halted while awaiting a chance to make it, an overtaking driver breaks the law if he passes on the right, even though the road ahead is clear. This rule is rarely obeyed to the letter. If it were, traffic at almost every intersection in the city would become hopelessly snarled. Yet that is the law, and every motorist who breaks it puts himself technically in the wrong if an accident should occur.

Obviously the regulations need revision in line with practical considerations. Whether or not that should include broad permission to pass on the right is a matter for consideration by the traffic experts. For their own protection against actions for damages, however, it should be made absolutely clear to all drivers that under the law as it stands today they are not allowed to pass on the right in any circumstances whatsoever.

On Shopping Early

WITH less than a month left before Christmas, the shopping rush will be intensified from now on. Superimposed on meagre enough bus schedules, this onslaught of parcel-laden individuals on vehicles already heavily laden at the rush hours is something to be dreaded. Particularly does the situation get out of hand and often unmanageable at closing time in the stores, which corresponds with the heaviest traffic on the traction system during the course of the whole day.

There are two things that can be done about the situation, if the inconvenience of former seasons is to be avoided. All householders who can do their shopping in the morning should be encouraged to do so. Where that is not possible, afternoon shoppers should plan their trips so that they will be off the buses finally before the 5 o'clock rush. In both instances to do so would enhance their own pleasure and contribute materially to the welfare and comfort of the community.

Commuters going to and from work cannot change their times, but shoppers can. It is the conjunction of both streams that block the transit system without reasonable excuse. This can be avoided by a little forethought, and it should.

STORES' REFERENDUM

Sir,—Have been following the above controversy and wish to go on record as being very much against such a means of settlement.

The majority of citizens who would vote on the referendum have no interest in the matter other than their convenience. They can have no knowledge of the excessive burden thrown on the operator of small independent stores like ours, who would be forced by competition from the chain stores to stay open a full six-day week; indeed, seven days a week of work would be required of us, as Wednesday afternoons are usually devoted to cleaning, painting and repairs in shop, things which cannot be done until public is excluded.

Again the general public cannot be expected to understand that it is not feasible for the smaller stores to employ adequate help to enable the operator to take a five-day week. Apart from the added expense of operating which, as in the case of larger stores, would simply have to be added to the cost of merchandise and absorbed by the buying public, there is a minutiae of detail to stock storage, accounts, credit granting and personal acquaintance with customers required in our type of store. It is next to impossible to find employees for part-time work only who are qualified to work under these circumstances.

I agree heartily with those writers on the subject who claim this is a matter to be decided upon by the merchants involved and not by the one-sided interests of the general public. That the public depends to a large extent on the personal-service store with free delivery, phone orders and charge accounts, is evident by the number of such stores in operation. Yet the same public could be deprived of just such a service by an unenlightened vote forcing these stores into fiercer competition with the chain stores.

A REJOINDER

Sir,—In answer to Gordon Head's PTA letter in Sunday's paper.

"I wish to state that I wrote honestly of what I saw, and I have a witness who was with me at the time. My children no longer attend the school but at the time they did.

Paying over $350 in taxes, half of which goes to schools, I felt entitled to complain.

In my opinion if 85% of the parents belong to the PTA are proud of it and can find no fault with the present school, why ask the voters to approve of a new school. Why waste the public money. I for one will vote against it.

"THEY'VE GONE ABOUT AS FAR AS THEY C'N GO!"

Thinking Aloud

"... of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings"

By TOM TAYLOR

I notice that last week our sports editor took my name; not in vain I will say but the result was to transplant me mentally, for a moment at least, to Ibrox Park, the home of the Glasgow Rangers. Unlike Archie MacKinnon of YMCA and Olympic fame I did not grow up in Ibrox's shadow but I knew its ubiquitous light-blue inhabitants quite well. In my young days they were all powerful.

One of them, R. G. Campbell by name, had a stool in an office not far from the place where I held the responsible post of licking the stamps, and sometimes I loitered nearby hoping he would emerge and come under my admiring gaze. Lest some of my readers should conclude I am now grown old let me say I became hypnotized by soccer not long after I could toddle.

Campbell was not of the elite, however. He had other more scintillating companions. Let me see now. There was Alex (Cutty) Smith, a touchline meteor, and Harry Rennie of the sure hands. And such other artists as Jimmy Gordon, Stark and May, R. C. Hamilton the amateur centre, and, later on, the inimitable Alan Morton.

* * *

A man down the street here tells me the greatest forward line in Scots soccer history—the greatest in any history for him—was the Celtic quintette, Bennett, McMenemy, Quinn, Somers and Hamilton. The first two came to Canada with a touring eleven in 1921, which included that goalkeeper par excellence, Jimmy Brownlee of Third Lanark, and by that time Bennett was also of the Ibrox elect, having left Parkhead for greener pastures.

Rangers and Celtic! For decades they monopolized Scottish soccer, and their annual New Year's Day duel was a spectators' donnybrook, as apparently it still is. Was this game not banned a year or two ago because of partisan feelings? Anyway I remember hearing my elders say they wished Rangers would fall into a ten-year slump because the light blues were too good for the game's good. Fate has taken a hand in these postwar years and the Rangers do not outclass other teams as once they did, but they are liable to win any game they ever play, a true mark of their greatness. If they come here next summer as Mr. Tang hopes, Victorians are in for a treat.

Ibrox men have glory to live up to, and what a spur that is, as the Russian Dynamos found out a few years ago.

Talking about the Dynamos is a reminder that soccer is now world wide and the most international of all games and that Brtiain is no longer its super exponent. I remember some years ago when playing on the prairie my surprise when a German-speaking opponent of my own age told me he had played the game as long as I had, beginning at school in Austria. The Continent, and Latin America too, crept up on British eminence unawares.

Someone said recently that any moment some dynamic promoter might take it in his head to set the U.S.A. afire with soccer, and then, says he, look out. Meaning that the traditional get-to-the-top credo of the Americans would change the balance of soccer supremacy.

Incidentally, I got into hot water once for not sticking up for the claim that soccer had its birth in Scotland, but do you know? I read last week that football (its real name) had its origin in China! At least in the history of the Han dynasty, 206 BC to AD 25, there is the expression "Tsu Chu", meaning to kick a stuffed leather ball with the feet. Something like the paper and string ball I kicked as a small boy, I suppose.

Reports from Ottawa

"WE'RE damned if we do and damned if we don't" is how one cabinet minister sums up the current hassle over whether American spy probers should be given Canadian government approval to quiz Igor Gouzenko.

By saying "No"—so far, at any rate—the government has at least ensured that any damning done won't be done by Canadians.

The cabinet realizes it would court strong public criticism if it seemed to approve of Senator Joseph McCarthy's methods by giving official sanction to activities in Canada by those who use McCarthy's methods.

In its efforts to stay clear of the semi-hysterical U.S. spy probes with their overtones of smear-the-Democrats politics, the government has incurred the ire of the McCarthys, Jenners, Morrises and Laskys. But that is less to be avoided than offending the Canadian people by co-operating in this political witch hunt.

* * *

Senator McCarthy himself has not been prominent in this dispute. Senator William E. Jenner, whose internal security sub-committee apes McCarthy's methods, has been carrying the ball in the current effort to quiz Gouzenko.

His committee counsel, Robert Morris, has been particularly eager to get Gouzenko on the witness stand. The contribution of Victor Lasky, described as an author and expert on Communism, was his charge that Foreign Minister Pearson was a source of information for Communist spies while Pearson was successively Canadian minister and ambassador in Washington during the war.

Lasky quoted the repentent American spy, Elizabeth Bentley, as having so told a congressional committee. If she did, this is the first inkling of it. And the counsel for that committee? Robert Morris.

What have Pearson and the government done to merit the odium in which these spy-happy Americans hold them?

Morris had the state department ask Ottawa to give him permission to come to Canada to question Gouzenko.

The government pointed out in reply that Gouzenko had no new information. Everything he had said in his expose of espionage in 1945 had been made available to the Americans. Therefore no useful purpose would be served by Morris interviewing him.

That precipitated the Lasky attack. Now the Jenner committee has had the state department reiterate its request—now almost more a demand than a request.

It's hard to see how Ottawa can do anything but restate its earlier answer. However, such refusal merely amounts to refusal to clothe Morris in authority valid in Canada. There's nothing to prevent Morris from coming to Canada in a private capacity and talking to Gouzenko—that is, if Gouzenko will see him.

And since Gouzenko has indicated that he will, a more pointless international hassle than that which developed from the exchange of diplomatic notes can hardly be imagined.

One unfortunate result may be the dissipation of some of the Republican good will won by Canada's recent warm welcome of President and Mrs. Eisenhower. But good will retained by the sacrifice of principles isn't worth the price.

South Africa's Example

(From The Toronto Telegram)

IN a recent announcement, the South African government has notified the world that from the beginning of next year it will no longer impose discrimination on imports from dollar countries, as it has been doing in order to strengthen the position of sterling. As the South African Information office in Ottawa described it, this sets an example in world trade. It will be good news to Canadian exporters to the South African market, for they will be assured competition in that market on equal terms with exporters from sterling countries. Canada's exports to South Africa have amounted to nearly $5,000,000 a month recently, with wheat, lumber, newsprint and automobiles the main items.

The Finance Minister of South Africa, N. C. Havenga, has explained that his country, which is the world's single greatest producer of gold, will continue its policy of assisting sterling by selling a minimum of £50,000,000 of gold each year to Britain. For some time, South Africa has been advocating an increase in the price of gold. Mr. Havenga said that without such an increase, multilateral trade would not be possible on a world scale. Instead, he foresaw a world divided into two opposing monetary and trading systems.

South Africa's abolition of discrimination against dollar imports is a step in the right direction to prevent the permanent division of world trade into dollar and sterling blocks. It provides a bridge for dollar goods to enter on competitive terms into one sterling country. At the same time, South Africa is reserving the right to restrict imports to the extent that such action is necessary to protect its balance of payments. But any import restriction will apply equally to dollar and sterling imports alike.

In South Africa's interest, the end of discrimination means that the South African buyer may choose freely between, say, a Canadian and a British article. This, as Mr. Havenga said, will "reduce our cost structure." The competitive position of sterling goods has improved lately. The Canadian exporter, therefore, will find that, though he faces no discriminatory barriers against his goods, he will have to compete with British goods to hold a place in the South African market. He cannot expect more than that.

On the Record

U.S. Issues In 1954

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

THE national chairman of the Republican Party, Mr. Leonard W. Hall, has said that Communism would be the chief issue in the 1954 election, eclipsing the high cost of living or low farm prices.

I think this will be true only if the Republican leadership passes into the hands of its most hairbrained elements. In that case the Republican Party will suffer the fate that befell the conservative parties in Germany. It will be consumed by its alliances, whichever way the country turns. If it wins, it will finally have ceased to be a conservative party and will have become a revolutionary party of the right—if the word, "right" and "left" any longer have meaning.

But I do not think the Republicans would win on this "chief issue." I think that the kind of campaign it would imply would create a coalition against it of liberal Republicans, to say nothing of those who normally compose the strength of the Democratic Party. In such a situation Adlai Stevenson would look like an answer to prayer and look so to every real conservative.

The Republican Party cannot successfully go on running against Truman. It cannot, in four years, make an issue out of Communist infiltration in high places under previous Democratic regimes. The issue in 1950 was the Truman administration, which was repudiated on many grounds. But the issue in 1954 will be the Eisenhower administration. And I think the Democratic national chairman, Stephen A. Mitchell, made a shrewd observation when he predicted that he didn't think the people would "eat warmed-over spy."

If the Republicans do their job properly, by 1954 the apprehension of Communist sympathizers in high places will have died down because the Republicans will have cured the disease. But they won't cure it by crying "Wolf! Wolf!" Casting out their nets in all directions and hauling nothing in. They won't do it by mobilizing against themselves the Protestant churches, the colleges and universities, many Republican newspaper editors, and even the United States army.

A conservative government should create quiet confidence, not hysteria. And if it thinks, as Mr. Hall seems to imply, that the Communist issue can be used to overcome a national recession in any sector of the economy, I would not place bets on the Republican side. In 1954, unless President Eisenhower begins to discipline his cohorts, the Democrats may successfully campaign on the slogan, "clean up the mess in Washington!"

The Packsack

OF GREGORY CLARK

IN traffic control, particularly as regards parking in prohibited areas, double parking by delivery trucks on busy streets, and all that variety of comfortable little conveniences to which a certain element of the public treats itself, there ought to be in every large municipality a flying squad of police which would range all over the territory, without any given beat or time schedule. The summonses they issue should be printed on bright red paper and should be unfixable. Unfixable by any magistrate, politician or senior police officer.

They should require, positively without exception, the appearance of the offender in police court. The red summonses should be issued serially, so that some hard-boiled incorruptible official could check the stubs regularly to make certain that every summons was dealt with by a magistrate in court.

What is the reason for all this rigidity? Simply that the human element is, in our traffic problem, the largest item of all. In all enterprises, in business, in industry, in operating any machine or any system, the human element is the element that fails, as a rule. In dealing with traffic, policemen are just as full of the human element as anybody else. After a few weeks or months on a beat, a constable cannot help but make some acquaintances.

A flying squad of police, ranging all over the city and with especial powers, could make traffic breaches so much of a nuisance to those who, for selfish convenience as a rule, are perhaps at the bottom of the traffic problem, that tremendous improvement might result.

We're all human. And the most human trait we have is that if one guy can get away with it, so can we. There isn't enough pain in the consequences of trying to get away with it.

Cubs Get Totem

NORTH LUFFENHAM, Eng. (AP)—Wolf Cubs at this RCAF fighter base now own a hand-carved, five-foot totem pole depicting the Canadian beaver and the British lion sitting in a canoe.

The totem pole, the work of the English Cub pack at nearby Tixover Grange Village, was presented recently to the North Luffenham Cubs whose 30 or so members are mainly sons of RCAF personnel here.

It was given as a symbol of friendship between Canadian and British Scouts.

This No. 1 fighter wing base has had Scouts and Cubs for more than a year and also boasts predominantly Canadian Girl Guides and Brownies.

Queen's Pilot Given Money After Theft

LONDON (Reuters)—Capt. Anthony Lorraine, whose £10,000 of possessions were stolen while he was away piloting the Queen across the Atlantic Monday night, has had the money replaced in two gifts.

"It is just like a fairy story," said Mrs. Lorraine Wednesday. She said her husband, a regular airline pilot, was "absolutely amazed" when she told him the good news by radio-telephone to Bermuda.

The money was made up by an anonymous donation plus a cheque for £3,000 from Britain's Canadian-born holiday king, Billy Butlin.

Butlin, one-time Toronto department store clerk, said he was donating the money so that Lorraine, "who had the Queen's life in his care, won't have the worry of having lost everything in the world."

Tough Roast Really Lasts

LONDON (CP)—A roast of meat, still intact after 4,000 years' exposure, was uncovered during a recent archaeological expedition to Jericho.

Dr. Kathleen Kenyon, director of the British school of archaeology in Jerusalem, reported the find when she returned here with 12 large packing cases containing objects recovered from an ancient tomb.

She said the meat, found with clothing, rush mats and wooden objects in the tomb 20 feet below ground surface, was "only spongy."

Unification Suggested For Maritimes

EDMONTON (BUP) — The Maritime provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island should be amalgamated into a single province, Dr. G. B. Sanford of the federal agriculture department said yesterday.

Dr. Sanford, a member of the plant pathology laboratory of the department's science service, and a native of Nova Scotia, made the suggestion in an address to the South Edmonton Rotary Club.

"The three provinces would be far better off financially and in many other ways if they united," he said.

"Maritimers have many problems and tend to blame the central provinces, and even sometimes the West, feeling that the rest of Canada is getting the lion's share of the progress."

Employment Scarcer Than in 1952

OTTAWA (CP)—The labor department reported Wednesday that the seasonal decline in employment in October was more pronounced than usual.

Seasonal job opportunities dropped sharply as harvesting of the near-record wheat crop was completed and as other in- [illegible] decline is normal in the fall.

The department estimated that the Canadian labor force at the end of October totaled 5,240,000, a decline of 74,000 as compared with the same date in 1952.

For the week ended October 24, the department said, there were 5,351,000 in the civilian labor force, compared with 5,398,000 on September 19, a drop of 47,000.

Applications for employment on file at national employment services offices October 22 totaled 191,900, an increase of 29,900 or about 18 per cent compared with the September 17 figure of 162,000. The October 22 figure also showed an increase of 44,300 or 30 per cent over the October 23, 1952, total.

All regions reported more applications on file in October, but the increase was most pronounced in Ontario where applications totaled 62,700, an increase of 13,800 compared with September 17.

The Quebec region had 57,700 applications on file October 22, an increase of 2,800 over the previous month. In the Pacific region applications totaled 26,200, a rise of 5,500 over September; in the Atlantic region 24,800, an increase of 2,800, and in the Prairie region 20,500, an increase of 5,000.

Peers Hit At TV For Profit

LONDON (CP)—Rebel Conservative peers, backed by Labor and Liberal lords, cracked out Wednesday in the House of Lords against a government plan to introduce competitive commercial television to Britain.

Public galleries were jammed and a number of truants from the Commons stood at one end of the large chamber as Conservative Viscount Hailsham teed off the two-day debate with an attack on the plan, which he termed "dangerous and unworkable."

The government proposes a second TV system operating in competition with the state-operated BBC. A new public corporation, with its own board of governors, would lease facilities to private companies willing to produce programs in return for the right to sell time to advertisers.

Viscount Hailsham said the plan meant investing £500,000 of public money to enable advertisers to make a private profit.

"It is a queer example," he said, "of classical finance coming from a Conservative government."

Standards of taste would be lowered, he argued, because the advertisers would be aiming at a maximum audience.

Opponents of the plan were in agreement with that national economic recovery and the advance of technical development it was time for an alternative TV system, but the alternative program should also be supplied by the BBC.

Postmaster-General Lord de la Warr, through whom the new corporation would be answerable to parliament, replied that the opposition to the plan was based on "distrust of those engaged in trade and commerce in this country, and distrust of the British people themselves."

Rations Off, Food Plentiful

Britain's Christmas Feast To Be Biggest Since 1938

LONDON (AP)—Britain will have the biggest and best Christmas since 1938, food ministry officials said Wednesday.

Rationing is virtually dead and food ministry and private traders have accumulated near-record stocks.

The traditional turkey and plum pudding dinner, they said, will be the best for 15 years. The turkeys will be plumper and the plum pudding fruitier. And prices may be a bit lower.

Some 20,000 tons of turkeys and other poultry will be distributed during Christmas week. Imports from Argentina have been cut by half this year and Australian, South African and Uruguayan supplies will be reduced. But supplies from the home market and Northern Ireland will be up 10 to 15 per cent and there will be plenty for all.

Fats and oils, flour, eggs, sugar and dried fruit are no longer controlled, so all the ingredients for pre-war Christmas cakes and puddings are available. Fresh fruit will also be plentiful.

Only butter will be the ghost at the feast. The ration is still only three ounces a person a week.

U.S. Cost of Living Hits All-Time High

WASHINGTON (UP) — The U.S. government reported yesterday that living costs hit a new all-time high in October for the eighth straight month, but its price experts said inflation now "appears to be ended."

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the increase in its cost-of-living index was due mainly to higher prices for rent, clothing, medical care, beer and such recreational items as admissions to 3-D movies.

The increase was big enough to give a two-cent-an-hour wage increase to some 1,000,000 automotive workers whose pay rates are tied to the index. The wage boost will go to employees of all major car firms.

The bureau's mid-October index showed that prices were 15.4 per cent higher than during the base period 1947-49, and .2 per cent above mid-September. The total increase since October, 1952, however, has been only 1.1 per cent.

The increase since last January was a little less than 1.5 per cent. The index dropped slightly around the first of the year and then rose again. In January it stood at 113.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the bureau, said prices now are "practically stable" and the index should remain steady for at least several months. He said expensive items are dropping in price, while "low prices are rising."

"The period of inflation appears to be ended," he declared.

Over-all food prices fell .2 per cent between mid-September and mid-October and were 1.2 per cent below the same time last year. Foods which dropped included pork, fresh chicken, apples, oranges and lemons.

Fruits and vegetables were up 1 per cent. Substantial increases were reported for lettuce and tomatoes. Prices of eggs, milk and butter also rose.

Rents jumped 1 per cent and Clague said they would probably continue to rise for many months because they have not yet reached their "true economic level." Federal rent controls were removed last July.

Police Chief Denies Civil Defense Claim

Charges that the local police department has shown lack of co-operation with the Greater Victoria civil defense organization are unjust, Police Chief John Blackstock said yesterday.

"When men won't volunteer, what are we going to do about it?" he said at a meeting of civil defense chiefs of services.

He wanted to know who was responsible for giving the story to the newspapers.

NOT JUSTIFIED

Civil defense director Leonard Hatcher disclaimed knowledge of how the reports "got in the newspapers' hands." He said there was nothing to justify the papers saying the police refused co-operation.

A report released last week by Mr. Hatcher read in part: "The appeal to the existing police forces was completely ignored and an organized resistance seems to exist."

During the meeting Mayor Claude Harrison thanked the service chiefs for their work over the past two years.

Mr. Hatcher said following the meeting they hope to hold another discussion soon at which time each service chief would produce standing orders for every member of his particular group.

This will allocate jobs for everyone in the organization in case of an emergency.

Psychiatry Subject Of Talk to Nurses

An address on psychiatry in mass disaster was delivered last night by Dr. Douglas E. Alcorn to graduate nurses in the auditorium of St. Joseph's Hospital.

The lecture was the eighth and final in a refresher series for graduate nurses sponsored by the Registered Nurses' Association of B.C. for the local civil defense organization.

Dr. Alcorn said mass disaster doesn't leave psychological scars unless the public builds up fears before disaster strikes.

CONTROL FEARS

Fears resulting form disaster can be controlled through knowledge, he said, adding that people in authority need aptitude for leadership in addition to knowledge.

It has been proved, Dr. Alcorn stated, that psychiatric casualties are fewer in a time of national disaster because danger forces otherwise self-centred individuals to join forces with other citizens of the community.

Purpose of the refresher course was to prepare graduate nurses who have not been active in their profession for years for service in hospitals in time of disaster.

Cosmic Rays High Menace

WASHINGTON (NANA) — Near the top of the earth's atmosphere, at altitudes between 70,000 and 80,000 feet, man will be subjected to a hitherto unexperienced kind of radiation from which there appears at the moment to be no practical protection.

This radiation consists of the heavy particles in cosmic rays—nuclei of the atoms of oxygen, nitrogen, carbon, calcium, magnesium and iron.

While such altitudes are still almost beyond flying reach, the problem is already getting consideration at the navy's school of aviation medicine at Pensacola, Fla. It will be serious only at high latitudes, mostly over polar regions. But there it may be very serious indeed.

In this region, according to the calculations of Dr. Herman J. Schaefer of the Pensacola staff, a man will be hit in a second by about 4,000 protons, 375 alpha particles, 19 nuclei of the lighter elements, and at least one nucleus of iron.

The protons and alpha particles cause no concern. They are extremely minute, everybody is being hit by them all the time, and the extra dose at high altitudes is still far below calculated tolerance. The magnesium, calcium and iron nuclei are so few that a man could be exposed to them for a long time without noticeable effects.

The carbon, nitrogen and oxygen are a different proposition. They are gigantic, compared to protons or alpha particles. They will tear through tissue, causing a trail of local destruction, which, if it happens to be in the right place, may cause permanent damage.

The living cells along their paths, Dr. Schaefer says, will be exposed to a dose of "several thousand roentgens in a millionth of a second or less" which "exceeds by far anything natural or artificial terrestrial sources can supply."

On the problem of protection from such radiation, preliminary calculation calls for a shield of aluminium about three inches thick. Other materials could be thinner, but the weight would remain about the same. Such a weight would obviously be impossible for any flier to carry for any long period.

Financial Needs of SPCA Continue Throughout Year

BY B. ROBERT MAGGS

Owing to the number of questions I have received this week I haven't much space for "chit-chat" but I feel that it is a "must" to remind you once again that the SPCA drive for funds is still on. Their need of financial assistance is constant throughout the year of course, but everyone concerned is making an extra special effort at this time to put the society in a sound financial position. I do not have to tell you of the fine work being done by the SPCA, everyone is familiar with it by this time—so—won't you help, too?" Make this your pet charity." The address, 111 Wilson Street.

Mr. J.A.—Wants to know what is a "tuck-up" on a dog?

A.—A tuck-up is their belly that is tucked up under the ribs towards the rear legs, giving the dog a small waist, as in a whippet.

Mrs. D.L.—Is one rabies shot effective for as long as the dog lives or is it necessary to give them more?

A.—Rabies shots are good for one year only. Upon administering the shot the veterinary will give you a date tag to prove that he has given the dog a rabies shot. Consult your veterinary for full information as to why and when it is necessary to do it.

DOG FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. K.A.L.—Would like to know what breed of dog is best suited for children?

A.—There is no one breed that is better for children than another. Most dogs become fondly attached to boys or girls. My dog adopts any child and will sit quite contentedly alongside a baby buggy as long as there is a baby in it. And she becomes quite upset if she hears a child cry. Yet she was not raised where there were young children—ours were all grown up by the time we got her. It seems to be something instinctive in her to love kiddies, and yet another of the same breed, or even of the same litter, might pay no attention at all to children. But, as I said, most dogs will "adopt" a child.

Mr. B.I.L.—Wants to know if there are any breeders of Pekes on the Island?

A.—Yes. Get in touch with W. Tennant, 898 Island Highway, Langford. He has some beauties.

Miss W.L.—Wants to know why there is no telltale pile of earth beside a chipmunk hole?

A.—When a chipmunk digs a burrow it throws the excavated earth behind it, in regular digging style. It completes its burrow, which is a slanting tunnel down to below the frost line, then lateral corridors, storage rooms and so on. Then he tunnels upward and makes an exit hole from below.

Because this hole has been dug from underneath there is no accumulation of earth around it. It is a neat little circle, invisible in the grass. He then pops out from it, runs back to the original entrance hole, and there stuffs the loose dirt back into that hole, tamping it down with his paws and scattering the surplus. Also, he never leaves a trail to his burrow because he approaches and leaves his doorway in high springing jumps. Clever little rascal isn't he? And we humans think we are smart.

IT BEATS ME

By Jim Tang

Victoria Cougars arrived home yesterday morning after passing up their best chance of the season to get into a reasonably-contending position. Instead of being a solid third and only six points out of the WHL lead, where a sweep of their busy four-game week end would have put them, the Cougars were sixth, five points out of third spot and 14 out of the lead. And the last-place Edmonton Flyers, only Tuesday bolstered by the addition of three good forwards, are now three points in arrears. But, somewhat unexpectedly, neither general-manager Fred Hutchinson or coach Billy Reay seemed too disturbed at getting only one point out of the possible eight.

"We played well in all our three games on the road," Hutchinson said. "If we can keep up that brand of hockey we'll be on our way. I told them in Vancouver we'd have those Canucks caught by March 21."

Although venturing no such prediction, Reay, too, appeared optimistic. "I'm not displeased," he stated. "The boys played well, particularly in Vancouver Tuesday. We ran into outstanding goalkeeping in every game and a lot of bad breaks. If they can show me the same hockey they played Tuesday, we'll do all right."

Local press reports bore out Reay's claims, but the fact remains, as Tom Taylor so aptly put it, "that no club works harder for its goals than the Cougars." What counts is outscoring your opponents, not outshooting them, and open nets missed and breakaways flubbed cannot be called bad breaks. The Cougars have scored six goals in two games this season and five in two others. Those are the only games in which they managed more than four goals and their goal production for the remaining 19 games is only 37.

But the impression persists that the club will soon start finding the nets more regularly. And there is another excellent opportunity to gain ground. The Cougars don't play their next game away from home until December 12, and they have Memorial Arena ice for Seattle, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Vancouver and Seattle in that order. This could be it, one way or the other.

Random Harvest

Reg Patterson, business manager of the Victoria Tyees, leaves for Atlanta this morning to attend the annual meeting of minor professional baseball leagues. He is hoping that one or two Tyees will be picked up in the draft to give the club some operating capital . . . New York hockey writers have cooled a bit on Ivan Irwin after giving him a big welcome. One wrote the other day that "Irwin looked great in his debut. Then he began to worry about the goals scored against him and now he's playing safety-first hockey instead of belting them. Unless he reverts . . ." . . . The Cougars have picked up 10 of their 19 points in seven games against the Prairie clubs, the other nine in 16 games against coast clubs . . . A cartoon in the current issue of The Hockey News says about Larry Wilson, the former Edmonton Flyer now with Chicago Black Hawks: "In the throes of an early-season slump, one, Sidney Abel, 'Bootnose to you,' matched Larry with Mosienko and Jankowski and almost immediately the 'Bucks' started winning . . . coincidence?" The Hawks' record to date: Three wins, 16 defeats and three ties. Wonder where they would have been had they not started 'winning' with their new line . . . The reasons why Winnipeg Blue Bombers played Toronto Balmy Beach, ORFU champions, in a Grey Cup semi-final are not hard to find. The former semi, between the ORFU and Big Four champions, never drew peanuts. There were 16,000 at Winnipeg. Then, too, it gives the Western winner what amounts to a practice game while waiting for the East to declare its champion . . . Calgary Stampeders have some hopes of persuading Jim McFadden, who recently quit playing for the Chicago Black Hawks, of coming out of retirement . . . Billy Reay believes that the Saskatoon Quakers are the best club he has seen in the WHL this season . . . St. Andrews of the Coast Soccer League have signed an Irishman, 24-year-old Jim McGarry, who played for Glentoran in the Irish League. That's quite a concession for the Scots.

Oak Bay Easily Wins Russell Cup Opener

By IAN GLENDAY

Packing too much weight in the scrum and controlling almost all phases of the game, Oak Bay High School's senior rugby team rolled to a convincing 16-0 decision over Victoria High yesterday at Windsor Park in the opening game of the annual Howard Rusell Cup competition.

Oak Bay meets Victoria High in the second game of the best-of-three series at the Fernwood grounds Monday afternoon at 3.30 and the Bays established themselves as heavy favorites to regain the prized silverware from the city institution after a year's absence.

Although held to a 3-0 lead at the end of the first half, the Bays were much the better team in the second session, dominating almost all of the play through fine work by their forwards and the inability of Victoria High to organize a concentrated attack.

CREIGHTON STARS

Lanky Colin Creighton provided much of the punch in the backfield, scoring a pair of trys and eluding Victoria High tacklers with some fine broken-field running. Dave Edgar and Dave Unwin scored a try apiece while Norm Dixon added two converts, one of them from a difficult angle.

It was a black day for the Victoria High supporters, who saw their team go down to its third straight defeat this season, and for the third successive game fail to score a point. Lacking in experience, the defending champions nevertheless put up a good battle against their more aggressive opponents in the first half and their hustling tactics plus seven free kicks kept the winners on defense in the late stages of the opening session.

TEAM CLICKS

But the Oak Bay machine started to click in the second half, breaking the spirited match wide open and completely hemming the losers in their own half of the field. Minus backfielder Merlin Hawes, who didn't start because of illness, the Bays lost forward Bob Showers in the final minutes of the game when he was carried off the field with a groin injury.

Bays pressed from the opening whistle but didn't score until the 20-minute mark when Dave Edgar plunged over near the corner-flag to make it 3-0.

Creighton got his first try 15 minutes into the second half after grabbing a loose ball that had been blocked on a field-goal attempt and Dixon made the difficult convert.

Oak Bay continued its relentless pressure and Unwin dribbled a loose ball over the line and fell on it to make the score 11-0. Creighton got his second try as dusk closed in and Dixon finished off the scoring by making the convert directly in front of the post.

Lineups follow:

Shoemaker Rolls Along

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UP)—Wee Willie Shoemaker, already holder of the all-time world's jockey championship, is running away with the riding honors at the current Bay Meadows meeting, a tabulation of records to date shows.

With more than three weeks of racing left, Shoemaker has 41 winners, 24 seconds and 17 thirds. His nearest competitor, Ray York, has 28 winners, 21 places and 18 shows.

Willie racked up two more wins yesterday to run his phenomenal total for the year to 454.

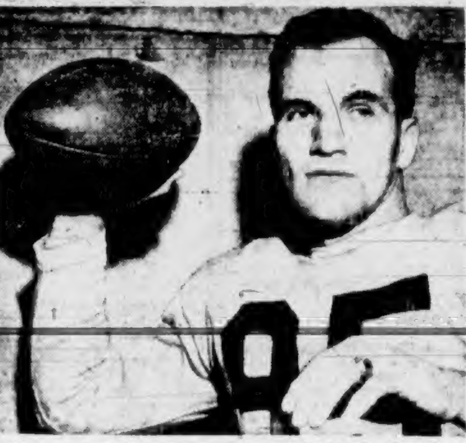
Cup Final Set For Saturday

Civil Service and Canadian Scottish will meet in the final of the Victoria and District Football Association's McGavin Cup competition Saturday at Royal Athletic Park at 2.30 p.m.

Servants moved past Victoria West in their opening-round match and drew a bye into the final while the Scots defeated Heaneys in a first-round match and edged Wood Motors in the semi-finals.

League play will resume Sunday with Victoria West and Heaneys picking up a postponed game at Lower Beacon Hill Park at 2.30 p.m.

Grey Cup's Central Figures



Chance to make a tremendous reputation in Canada lies with Hamilton Tiger-Cats' Ed Songin, above, when he starts pitching them at Toronto on Saturday. The Cats used and discarded four quarters before taking Songin, who failed to make Baltimore Colts. Accurate passing and brilliant play calling by Songin in playoff games has impressed all of Eastern Canada.

INDIAN JACK JACOBS

Winnipeg football fans are holding their breath waiting to hear who will call the signals for the Blue Bombers. Jack Jacobs and Trafton reportedly have been feuding all year, but Winnipeg probably will riot in earnest if Joe Zaleski gets starting call and the Bombers lose.

GEORGE TRAFTON

Betting is that George Trafton will not be back in Winnipeg next year no matter who wins the Grey Cup. The crusty coach, who has insulted all players, sports writers and fans alike all year, is determined, however, to win the Grey Cup in his third year in the Prairie metropolis.

CARL. VOYLES

Likeable coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Carl Voyles finally has achieved a Grey Cup final, and he's gunning for a win Saturday to repay players and Hamilton fans who have stood behind him in leaner years.

Strengthened Flyers Trounce Royals, 7-2

VICTORIA	23	7	11	5	66	70	19
Edmonton	23	8	12	4	74	98	18

Wednesday score: New Westminster 2, Edmonton 7.

Next game, tonight: New Westminster at Calgary.

EDMONTON (CP)—Edmonton Flyers flashed some of their last season brilliance Wednesday night when they trounced New Westminster Royals 7-2 in a Western Hockey League game before 3,300 fans.

Ray Hannigan was a two-goal man for Flyers, and singletons were netted by Jim Uniac, Enio Sclisizzi, Marcel Bonin, Jimmy Anderson and playing coach Bud Poile. New Westminster marksmen were Gordie Fashoway and Jackie Hamilton.

It was Flyers' first game since a major line-up shuffle which saw the addition of much-needed strength in left wingers. Bonin, up from Sherbrooke, and Neil Strain, former New York Ranger and Saskatoon Quaker, both impresed.

ROYALS STILL THIRD

Alex Shibicky's Royals stayed in third place and Flyers, despite the win, still are mired in the league basement which they have occupied most of the season.

It was a relatively fast but quiet game, which saw New Westminster's stout goalie, Lucien Dechene, stand out despite Edmonton's high goal total. He kicked out 36 shots to 25 saves made by Flyer netminder Glen Hall.

Hannigan opened scoring in the first period on a dash from his own blueline after stealing the puck from Royals' Ed Kassian. Uniac made it 2-0 from a scramble after a faceoff.

SCREENED SHOT

In the second period, Fashoway beat Hall with a screened backhander and Hannigan was on Dechene's doorstep to bat in a rebound off Flyer defenseman Larry Thibeault's blueline drive.

Poile slammed a blistering shot off a defenseman's stick to make it 4-1 early in the third period. Hamilton then potted Pierre Brilliant's set-up pass in front of the Edmonton net.

But Flyers won going away with three unanswered goals in the last 13 minutes. Sclisizzi had a picture goal on Dechene, skating through the whole Royal team. Bonin batted in Len Haley's rebound as Royal defenseman Matthews missed a clearing swing at the puck. Then Anderson split the New Westminster defense for another pretty goal.

SUMMARY

New Westminster—Goal, Dechene; defense, Durham, Bergeron, Matthews; forwards, McNab, Dorohoy, Brilliant, Love, Hamilton, Fashoway, Boyce, Kassian, Thorson, Denny.

Edmonton—Goal, Hall; defense, Hermiuk, Coffin, Zeniuk, Thibeault; forwards, B. Poile, D. Poile, Uniac, Sclisizzi, Strain, Anderson, Boone, Haley, Bonin, Hannigan, O'Grady.

Referee—Lou Farelli; linesman, Hank Wilson.

Second period—3, New Westminster, Fashoway (Boyce) 7.05; 4, Edmonton, Hannigan (Thibeault, Anderson) 11.55. Penalty: Anderson 13.15.

Third period—5, Edmonton, B. Poile (Sclisizzi, Strain) 3.48; 6, New Westminster, Hamilton (Dorohoy, Brilliant) 8.53; 7, Edmonton, Sclisizzi (D. Poile) 7.28; 8, Edmonton, Bonin (Haley) 10.27; 9, Edmonton, Anderson (B. Poile) 14.21. Penalties: Anderson 8.57, Durham 14.56.

Stops: Dechene 15, 8, 13—36. Hall, 8, 7, 10—25.

Shuttle Play Continues At Brentwood

Play in the Saanich open badminton tournament was confined to doubles and mixed doubles last night at Brentwood Community Hall as open events reached the quarter-finals and, in some cases, the semis.

Charlie Douglas and Reg Hoadley both advanced in singles play on default by B. Brandson and Bob Macmurchie.

The strong doubles combination of Hugh Francis and Bill Dunbar moved past Pitkethley and Thorsteinson, 17-15, 15-8, while Hoadley and Jimmy Wells trimmed F. Webb and C. Douglas, 15-2, 15-9.

Today's draw follows:

7.30—Miss P. Rose vs. Miss Jean Russ; Don Douglas vs. Warren Bell; D. Holden vs. V. Lindsl.

8.00—Miss B. Atkins and Thorsteinson vs. Mrs. Cook and J. Wells; Miss B. Rose and P. Bodmin vs. Mrs. Salmon and N. Lambrick; Miss P. Rose and J. Maugin vs. L. Holloway and G. Lomas.

8.30—C. Clarke and F. Simmonds vs. R. Hoadley and J. Wells; Jane Lee vs. Judy Mangin; Gloria Lomas vs. Marilyn Bassett.

9.00—Mrs. Roth and Miss Polbigg vs. Mrs. Beswick and Miss Rose; Mrs. Cook and Miss Watson vs. Miss Atkins and Mrs. Salmon; Miss Bassett and R. Young vs. Miss Mangin and Pete Sharp.

9.30—Miss Rose and P. Bodmin vs. Mrs. Drew and A. Kay; Mrs. Crampton and Miss Ford vs. Miss Atkins and Mrs. Butterick.

10.00—Mr. and Mrs. Crampton play winners of Miss Rose and Bodmin vs. Mrs. Drew and A. Kay; I. Ledson and T. Somers vs. R. Macmurchie and N. Lambrick; G. Sluggett and G. Lane vs. L. Stilling and T. Garnett.

Two Records Highlight Fivepin Play

A season and league record were established at Gibson's Bowladrome last night as the first third of the Commercial Fivepin League wound up with three teams deadlocked for first place.

Cy Wallis, bowling for Tip Top Tailors, racked up a league three-game high of 950 which included games of 331, 259 and 360. Free Lancers set a season's three-game team high with games of 1,361, 1,298 and 1,209 for a total of 3,868. Victoria Laundry held the old mark of 3,702.

Halah Hakah, holding a four-point bulge going into the final night of the first third, had to settle for a tie when they dropped all four points to Coca Cola, enabling their opponents to climb into a first-place dead-lock. Free Lancers also gained a share of first place by sweeping four points from Victoria Laundry.

Big League Berth Seen for Toronto

TORONTO (BUP)—A major league baseball club for Toronto in 1955 was predicted last night by Jack Kent Cooke, owner of the Maple Leafs in the International League.

Cooke made the prediction while being honored by the Toronto Variety Club for his "great contribution towards charitable work." He refused to elaborate.

City Names Athletic Commission

A Victoria Athletic Commission, provided for by a by-law in February, 1952, was named Wednesday when city council approved choices submitted for the three-man body.

Dr. Jack Patterson, former amateur boxer; Archie McKinnon, one of Canada's outstanding track and swimming coaches, and Doug Fletcher, who has been largely responsible for organizing leagues for youngsters in lacrosse and hockey, will serve on the commission.

The main duties of the commission are expected to be to regulate boxing and wrestling in the city.

Alston Easily Won Flatbush Handicap

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times dipped into racing's jargon yesterday to describe the selection of Walter Alston as Charlie Dressen's successor as manager of Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Flatbush Handicap—$25,000 added. All ages. 1 year. Start confusing; won mysteriously; place same. Went to post October 15. Off at once. Winner, nice guy, 42, from Montreal out of St. Paul, by way of Oxford, Ohio. Trainer, Walter F. O'Malley. Weather smoggy; track soft.

Alston, off sluggishly, came on at the half, gained command in stretch and won easily. Thompson did not figure in the early running, flashed speed toward the close but could not menace the winner. O'Doul, in contention, went wide around the final turn. Terry ran an even race. Harris had a chance early but faltered. Weight hurt Frisch. Henrich never threatened. Lavagetto stumbled. Reese ran out after taking the lead. Others did not figure.

Denny McGee Trophy Given

A trophy in memory of the late Denny McGee, former Victoria United soccer player who was killed in a fall at Cowichan Bay earlier in the year, has been donated by Mrs. A. McGee.

At a meeting held Monday night attended by officials of the United Booster Club, Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association and Mrs. McGee, it was decided that the memorial trophy would be put up for competition in the junior division for city knockout play.

The proposal for the trophy was made by Mrs. McGee through the United Booster Club and accepted by Jim Allan, president of the LIJJFA. McGee was a former city juvenile and junior star before he moved up to the Coast Soccer League club.

Wednesday night scores: Victoria V's 6, Navy 4; Merchants 2, Nanaimo 2.

Next game: Saturday, Merchants at Nanaimo, 9 p.m.

BY DOUG PEDEN

Nanaimo Clippers, who were forced to settle for a 3-3 tie with Merchants on opening night of the Victoria Commercial Hockey League season when Toby Brown scored with two seconds remaining, returned the compliment at Memorial Arena Wednesday night.

Veteran Red Carr, combining with Clipper coach Ed Shamlock, blasted the puck behind goalie George Hall with 20 seconds left to turn a 2-1 Merchant victory into a 2-2 deadlock.

SECOND-PLACE TIE

Nanaimo, which is still without a triumph over the Merchants on Victoria ice, losing 4-2 in their other meeting here, dropped only a few percentage points off their league lead but the result allowed Victoria V's to move into a second place tie with Merchants on the strength of their 6-4 win over Navy in the opening game Wednesday night.

Skating and checking much better than when they took a 9-4 pasting from the V's a week earlier, Merchants probably deserved a win on the night's play. However, they were balked on several great scoring chances by the excellent work of Nanaimo goaltender Don Medley, making his first appearance of the season.

Nanaimo opened the scoring on the Clippers' first rush of the game. Shadow Yesowich carried the puck through the Merchants' defense with a neat bit of stickhandling to put Earl Robinson through for the goal in the second minute of play.

BREMNER GETS OPENER

Although threatening on several occasions, Merchants couldn't beat Medley until the dying seconds of the opening period. Ron Bremner finally batting in a rebound after the goaltender had saved from Brown, Bremner and Bill Jensen in quick succession.

Merchants, playing without defenseman Bernie Strongman, who was sidelined with a badly bruised leg, took the lead in the second period when Cliff Coulter batted the puck past Medley from a scramble after Fred McColl got the puck away from Clippers' Arnie Duggan behind the net.

A charging penalty, the second of the cleanly-played contest, gave Nanaimo a chance with four minutes left in the final stanza but the Clippers were unable to get a direct shot on goalie George Hall against the persistent checking of Al Arnold, Phil Andrejkew, Brown and Bremner, while Jensen sat in the box.

MERCHANTS CAUGHT

With victory apparently in their grasp, Merchants got caught with one man on defense and, before they could organize their defense, the cagey Carr took a return pass from Shamlock and fired the shot that tied it up.

Navy, which had come close to victory in several of its nine games, started well against the V's and it appeared the Sailors might be on their way to their first triumph.

John Neves put the Tars in front at 5.22 of the first period while they were short-handed through a boarding penalty to Art Riches. However, before the session was over, the winners had moved ahead, 2-1, on a pair of quick goals by Bob Coulter and Jack Milburn.

Paul Wannamaker knotted the count at 2-2 in the first minute of the second period but the ever-improving V's hit their top form as they pushed in three unanswered goals in that session and added another early in the third.

Navy took control of the play in the last stages and cut the margin on goals by Orville Coulter and Ray Johnson but were not quite able to seriously threaten the V's victory.

Six Officials To Supervise Grey Cup Play

TORONTO (CP)—For the first time in Grey Cup history, six officials will supervise Saturday's East-West final between Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Norm Perry, president of the Canadian Rugby Union, said Wednesday night in addition to the referee, two umpires, the judge of play and head linesman, another official will be stationed deep in defensive territory.

JOB EXPLAINED

The sixth official's specific job will be to rule on long passes and punts. Normally, the two umpires drop back to cover the territory, but to do so must relax vigilance along the line.

Perry also announced that Hamilton has requested permission to dress 26 players for Saturday's game. Regulations state only 24 players may play.

He said that if both coaches want to dress 26 men the request will be granted.

Dodgers Hold Herman, Pitler

BROOKLYN (UP)—Coaches Billy Herman and Jake Pitler have indicated they want to remain with the Brooklyn Dodgers next year but Cookie Lavagetto will take advantage of the club's permission "to negotiate with other clubs for a better job."

Buzzy Bavasi, Dodger vice-president, said telegrams informing them they had no obligation to remain with the club were sent to the three coaches as soon as Walter Alston was chosen the new manager.

Bavasi pointed out that the club wanted all three coaches back "but did not want to stand in their way if they felt they could make better deals for themselves." Whether Herman and Pitler will be retained as coaches or given other jobs is up to Alston, Bavasi added.

Scott & Peden Juniors Edge Saanichton, 36-31

Scott & Peden junior boys held off a determined bid in the final quarter by Saanichton senior "C" men at Oak Bay Junior High gym last night to grab a 36-31 decision in an exhibition basketball game.

Leading by 10 points going into the final quarter, the Feedmen were hard-pressed as Stan Stewart scored eight of his 10 points to make it close. Winners held a 20-13 edge at the half and led 26-16 at the three-quarter mark.

Lanky Bill Dobbie paced the winners with 10 points and Ken Murray added six, while Stewart's 10 points topped the losers.

In an exhibition bantam boys' contest, Tillicums whipped St. Louis College, 30-12, with Mitchell and Pecknold pacing the winners with six points apiece.

St. Louis College downed Eagles, 29-24, in a midget boys' exhibition game.

Line-ups follow:

Tillicums—Lorimer, Wark 4, Pecknold 6, Taylor 5, Mitchell 6, Wong, McKinney, Wyatt 4, Wescott 5, Brice 2. Total—30.

St. Louis College Midgets—Scherr 2, O'Connell 4, O'Conner 3, McGuire 2, Soltice 2, Rivers, Pagnolla, Bell, Murphy. Total—12.

St. Louis College Bantams—Paul 9, McCall 8, Ash 5, Koin, Bayliss 4, Rutherford, Scherr 3, Parsons, Scrase, Churchill. Total—29.

Eagles—McKee 6, Brown, Lee, Pederson 2, Lere 9, Shaw, Parker, Holt 3, Rossington 1, McDougal, Wooldridge 4. Total—24.

Scott & Peden—Davies 5, Snowsell 2, Dobbie 10, Sleep 4, Gardener 1, Murray 6, Anderson 4, Saunders 4. Total—36.

Saanichton—Oakley, Stewart 10, McMeekin 2, Sims 5, Hodges 7, De Maredo, Simpson 7, Pearson, Jones. Total—31.

Dave Hancock Pots 33 Points

A sensational 33-point scoring performance by Dave Hancock almost singlehandedly gave Saanichton a 48-36 victory over Cordova Bay in a Saanich and Suburban bantam boys' basketball league game at Cordova Bay Community Hall last night.

Cordova Bay bantam girls won the first game of the two-game card, trimming Sidney, 30-9.

Grey Cup Fever Grips Toronto; Forecast of Weather Promising

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto is set for a week end football blowout that promises to make an atomic blast look like small potatoes.

The annual fever known as Grey Cup-itis has gripped this city. There'll be a huge parade with bands and beautiful girls. There'll be a $10-a-plate dinner and a big ball. And there'll be an invasion by thousands of football-mad, cowboy-hatted [illegible] Blue Bombers against Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the annual classic.

Thousands of others will come the 40-odd miles from Hamilton—4,000 of them with tickets they were lucky enough to grab—to see the Big Game at Varsity Stadium Saturday or just join in the fun.

CITY QUIET NOW

Right now things are quiet. But it's just the lull before the storm that will break with Friday's arrival of the first of the fun-loving westerners complete with bands and parade floats. There isn't a hotel room to be had in the city—the two biggest have been sold out for two months—and there isn't a Grey Cup ticket that can be legally purchased.

The Grey Cup dinner will be Friday night, followed by the ball at which Mis Grey Cup will be chosen from among 12 beauties representing teams in the Big Four, Western Conference and Ontario Rugby Union. The parade will come Saturday morning, reviewed by the mayors of Toronto, Hamilton and Winnipeg as it passes city hall.

Grey Cup On CJVI

Victoria football fans interested in Saturday's Grey Cup game at Toronto will be able to hear a play-by-play description over radio station CJVI.

A half hour before the Winnipeg Blue Bombers meet Hamilton Tiger-Cats, the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation will present the Grey Cup cavalcade starting at 9.15 a.m. Game broadcast starts at 9.45 a.m. and continues until the conclusion.

Then will come the climax—the game itself with Bombers bidding for the West's first national football title since Calgary Stampeders beat Ottawa Rough Riders, 12-7, in 1948.

NO RAIN OR SNOW

Fred Turnbull, Ontario's chief weather forecaster, yesterday held doggedly to his long-range prediction of the weather outlook Saturday: "Partly cloudy, afternoon temperature 45, light winds, no rain or snow."

University of Toronto officials put the Canadian Rugby Union tarpaulin on Varsity Stadium Tuesday night, protecting the turf from rain. It will stay down until Saturday.

Gross gate for the game is expected to total $168,443, an all-time high, with ticket sales yielding $128,443 and television, radio, movie and program rights bringing in an additional $40,000. Last year, when a record crowd of 27,395 saw the classic at Varsity Stadium, the gross gate was a record $126,026.

Disgruntled Winnipeg fans who thought they had been assured tickets and then got none before the supply ran out, have besieged newspaper and radio switchboards with pleas, threats and complaints.

DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM

Under the distribution system set up by the Winnipeg Rugby Football Club, applicants who proved they were club members or season ticket holders received yellow cards saying they were entitled to tickets.

On presenting these cards along with proof of transportation to Toronto, and payment, they were given receipts entitling them to pick up tickets in Toronto.

But something went wrong. The ticket supply ran out well before all the yellow cards had been turned in. Club officials estimated that about 2,400 yellow cards were mailed but apparently some fans got more than one ticket on providing proof of transportation. The re[illegible]. The club received 4,500 applications.

WORKOUTS LIGHT

Meanwhile, both teams went through light workouts yesterday with predictions of a victory coming from both camps.

Hamilton coach Carl Voyles said his club would win the Grey Cup but warned that "we will have to come up with a top-notch performance to do it. I think our boys can win," he said in an address to 400 members of the Hamilton Quarterback Club. "We are at our peak right now."

Voyles, in his fourth year as coach and general manager of the Ti-Cats, added, "We were unable to scout them during the season and while we have an idea of what they do we have nothing definite. I do know they have a very good team."

At Aurora, 24 miles north of Toronto, Winnipeg coach George Trafton said: We're going to have trouble with that Hamilton line. They're a rough touch ball club.

MAZZA LEADS

"Sure we have a big line," Trafton went on. "But just take a look at the Hamilton boys," as he ran a finger down a crumpled program which showed 235-pound tackle Vince Mazza heading a list of defensive players all over 200 pounds.

For the Bombers, it will be their 13th appearance in a Grey Cup final and they're hoping for a victory so they can show off their year-old blazers without any embarrassment. The blazers were purchased prior to the 1952 western finals when Bombers looked like a cinch to win but were upset by Edmonton Eskimos, two games to one.

However, Winnipeg holds the best record of western clubs in the classic, winning in 1935, 1939 and 1941. Only on four occasions has the title gone west of the Great Lakes.

Flyers Buy Neil Strain

SASKATOON (CP)—Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Hockey League Wednesday night announced the sale of forward Neil Strain to Edmonton Flyers.

Strain played with Edmonton last night.

Strain has been on the suspended list for failure to report to training camp here and for failure to report to Cleveland Barons of the American League when involved in a player trade between New York Rangers, Quakers and Barons.

Saskatoon manager Norman Couch said the price paid for Strain was "very good." No other players were involved.

Chiefs Work On Plans To Pay Debts

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP)—Stockholders of the Wenatchee Western International Baseball League club have decided to operate in 1954 and are continuing plans for raising money to pay off $18,625 in current debts.

President Paul Thomas announced that WIL President Bob Abel had extended until December 10 a deadline for final word from Wenatchee on its financial condition for next year.

Thomas said the team will make every effort to have its financial picture cleared by that time.

Thomas said a group of businessmen has offered to operate the team this coming season on a lease basis, providing all old bills are paid.

Wednesday score: New York 5, Boston 3.

Next games tonight: Montreal at Chicago, Toronto at Detroit, New York at Boston.

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Rangers rallied for three goals in the final period to defeat Boston Bruins 5-3 in a National Hockey League game Wednesday night.

Wally Hergesheimer broke a 3-3 tie at 9.48 of the final period as he scored his first goal in three games and seventh of the season. Harry Howell tallied the insurance goal at 14.39 of the same period unassisted when the Bruins took goalie Jim Henry out of the nets.

Howell's shot traveled the length of the ice, bouncing off the side boards, and moved the Rangers within five points of the fourth-place Bruins.

BOSTON SCORES FIRST

Boston tallied in the opening period as Joe Klukay took passes from Doug Mohns and Dave Creighton. New York tied the score as Eddie Kullman scored on assists from Don Raleigh and Nick Mickoski.

The Rangers went in front on Ike Hildebrand's goal early in the second session. But the Bruins struck back, tying the score on Milt Schmidt's goal and going ahead as Leo Labine beat the Ranger goalie.

Seixas Injury Another Blow To U.S. Hopes

MELBOURNE, Australia (UP)—America's Davis Cup hopes, dampened when Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert lost to Australian stars last week, suffered another possible blow Wednesday when Seixas announced he might not play in the Victorian championships because of the recurrence of a knee injury he suffered last summer.

Seixas, 30-year-old Wimbledon champion from Philadelphia who ranks as America's most experienced amateur tennis player, injured his right knee when he lost to Trabert in the finals of the Newport, R.I., tournament on August 16. He re-injured it yesterday by slipping on a damp court while practicing for the Victorian tournament, which begins tomorrow.

Eddie Chavez Defeats Canada's Arthur King

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eddie Chavez, grim-faced little Mexican from San Jose, Calif., Wednesday night strengthened his bid for the world's lightweight boxing crown when he scored a 10-round decision over Canadian titleholder Arthur King of Toronto.

Chavez, weighing 136½ to King's 137, won the unanimous decision of the referee and two judges.

Only a small crowd saw the action-filled fight in Winterland Arena, but a country-wide audience viewed it on television.

Accompanying him were manager Al Weill and his two sparring partners, Bob Golden and Toxie Hall.

Als To Retain Coach Walker

MONTREAL (CP)—Coach Douglas (Peahead) Walker of Montreal Alouettes Wednesday signed a contract to coach the Big Four football team again next season.

General manager Lew Hayman said both the club and Walker are happy about the signing. The terms were not disclosed.

Hayman also said it is definitely expected at least three of the team's outstanding imports—quarterback Sam Etcheverry, tackle Tex Coulter and centre Tom Hugo—will be back.

A Product of General Foods

Revolutionary New Coffee

★ Not a powder! Not a grind! But millions of tiny "FLAVOR BUDS" of real coffee . . . ready to burst instantly into that famous MAXWELL HOUSE FLAVOR!

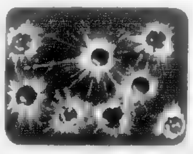
Here's the revolutionary new coffee . . . just as quick to fix as old-style "instants" but tastes so different. Instantly soluble but deliciously rich and full bodied.

100% PURE COFFEE — NO FILLERS ADDED

It's all pure, roaster-fresh coffee . . . brewed for you in the spotless Maxwell House kitchens. When it reaches peak perfection the water is removed — leaving the miracle "Flavor Buds". JUST ADD HOT WATER to get perfect coffee every time. Never again the fuss and muss of "brewing your own" or the disappointment of old style instants.

See how the "Flavor Buds" "Come to Life" in your cup!

MAGNIFIED VIEW of miracle "Flavor Buds" at the instant hot water is added. See how buds release famous Maxwell House flavor.



SAVES YOU MONEY, TOO

A regular jar of Instant Maxwell House makes about as many cups as a pound of ordinary ground coffee . . . yet it costs you up to [illegible]

Pupils Endure Makeshift Classrooms

Overcrowding in Lampson Street School has forced officials to house 80 children in antiquated wooden annex heated by 1890 pot-bellied stove and badly lighted by old-fashioned units. New Macaulay Camp School, proposed under school building program, will relieve Lampson Street situation.

Crowded out of regular classrooms by lack of space, 36 Doncaster School pupils attend classes on stage of auditorium. Authorities say poor lighting, heating and lack of space make arrangement highly unsatisfactory for good instruction, as well as limiting use of auditorium.

Rechecked Figure On Tuesday Vote Expected Tonight

A recheck of all votes cast in Tuesday's by-election will get under way this morning. A final figure on the election result may be available tonight.

The recheck is being held at the request of Finance Minister Gunderson, who lost the election to Liberal George Gregory by 93 votes on the basis of election night counting.

After the recheck, election workers will count the 200 or more hospital and absentee ballots which have not yet been counted.

RECOUNT POSSIBLE

If the recheck and the counting of the absentee ballots does [illegible] Premier Bennett said Wednesday there could be a judicial recount.

Before a recount could be held, Social Crediters would have to convince a county court judge that some ballots had been improperly counted or rejected. Then the judge would recount the ballots.

A recount would have been impossible if the new Elections Act had been allowed to stand as the government framed it. The act originally would have [illegible] where there was a difference of [illegible] 50 votes between two candidates. But a Liberal amendment, one of two which the government accepted during the last session, removed the 50-vote maximum from the act.

He is keeping secret his plans to meet the situation should [illegible] finance minister be declared defeated on the final count.

Asked what he might do the premier said: "We take one step at a time. We'll meet the different situations as we come to them."

When a reporter remarked that this left him with the impression that another by-election to seat Mr. Gunderson was still a possibility, the premier [illegible] thoughtfully, then said: "There are always by-elections in the four or five-year life of a legislature."

Premier Bennett told his press conference he was "feeling on top of the world" in spite of Mr. Gunderson's apparent defeat.

PERCENTAGE GAIN

The premier found comfort in the fact that Social Credit had increased its percentage of the vote (up about 1.71 per cent) in comparison with the June general election.

This, he said, showed that Social Credit had not only held but had increased its strength in [illegible]. He was confident his party would regain the lost seat in a general election.

"Even if this by-election is lost it has no great significance considering our percentage increase and the manoeuvre that took place between the other two parties," he said.

The premier was referring to the apparent switch of 10 per cent of a total vote from the CCF to the Liberal candidate.

Aldermanic Campaign Opening Set Tonight

With the provincial by-election now out of the way, the gun goes off tonight in Victoria West for the [illegible] election [illegible].

Eleven aldermanic candidates and several school board candidates will exchange platform [illegible] at a rally in the Victoria West Community Hall beginning at 8 p.m. Mayoral candidates have not been invited.

Tonight's meeting will be the first of a series [illegible].

Mayor Claude Harrison has hired [illegible] for a [illegible] election candidates on the evening of November [illegible]. The mayor [illegible] for the city to rent [illegible] platform.

ADDITIONAL MEETINGS

It is expected the Junior Chamber of Commerce may sponsor another election rally, [illegible] previous years and other organizations will probably stage two or three meetings for the five mayoralty candidates. Times and places of these meetings will be announced later.

Tonight's [illegible] is expected to be a lively one. It is understood some of the city's perennial hecklers will be on hand to give audible disapproval to some or all of the candidates who march to the platform.

INVITED SPEAKERS

Invited to speak are Ald. Watson Pinfold, Ald. Brent Murdoch and Ald. Mrs. Margaret [illegible], seeking reelection, and new council aspirants Geoffrey Edgelow, Gordon Carter, Harry Haigh, W. A. Scott, Fred Blakeney, Elgin Neish, Fred Ramsdale and ex-Alderman [illegible] Mooney.

[illegible]

City Lacks Power, Mayor Hires Hall

Mayor Claude Harrison has ruled that it is illegal for the city to hire a hall for a civic election rally but has offered to do it himself.

It has been common practice in previous years for city council to hire an auditorium and invite all election candidates to speak.

NO AUTHORITY

The mayor told city council yesterday that he had instructed city solicitor Arthur Patton to look into the Municipal Act and that the solicitor can find no authority for the [illegible] for the purpose.

[illegible] accepted the mayor's offer [illegible] although Ald. Brent Murdoch protested that [illegible] candidates themselves should be allowed to [illegible] the hall.

The mayor has engaged the Britannia Branch hall [illegible] Burnside for the evening of November 30. He has asked candidates who wish to speak [illegible] to 4 p.m. November 27. Mayoralty candidates will be given 10 minutes, aldermanic candidates four minutes and others three minutes to speak.

"Of course," he told council yesterday, "it must be borne in mind that in future candidates [illegible] the city purse for any election purpose and expense except those that are properly incurred by statute for the carrying out of the poll."

Two cars were damaged but no one was injured in a collision at the intersection of Oak Bay and Bank Wednesday morning.

A car driven by Caroline L. Shiers, 24 Sylvan Lane, was in collision with a car driven by Samuel A. Hull, 1175 Hampshire, when the Hull car failed to stop in time at the intersection.

Damage to the Hull car was heavy. Light damage was done to the other, police report.

Kiernan Rapped On Milk Quotas

LADYSMITH — Agricultural Minister Kenneth Kiernan has not only failed to offer any suggestion for modifying new milk quota regulations but also has made "thinly veiled threats" to the dairymen, George Wyndlow told members of the Ladysmith Chamber of Commerce this week.

Mr. Wyndlow, a milk producer from Yellow Point district and a director of the Vancouver Island Dairymen's Association, was guest speaker at the meeting.

DEPRIVED OF RIGHTS

"They are depriving us of our fundamental rights," he said. He explained that new regulations would establish quotas for Fraser Valley milk based on the three lowest months for Island milk production.

These quotas would be permanent and would be in effect 12 months of the year, he said.

He said that during three months of the year Island production falls off to the point where milk must be imported to meet the demand but in the other nine months there is more than enough milk produced by Island herds.

Crux of the question, he said, is that milk sold for consumption in the fluid form commands a much higher price than milk [illegible] for the manufacture of milk products.

LOWER SURPLUS PRICE

The new quota regulations would give Fraser Valley producers a large year-round share of the high priced market, leaving Island [illegible] producers to take the lower surplus price, he said.

He thanked the Ladysmith Chamber for its efforts to prevent Mainland producers from being granted a permanent quota in the Victoria market.

He said the Dairymen's Association had been "officially reproved" by the chairman of the milk board for mustering such strong support for its cause at a recent meeting in Ladysmith.

PROTEST SUPPORTED

On that occasion representatives of many municipal councils and chambers of commerce unanimously supported the association's protest against the proposed new regulations.

One-Man Invasion Costs $24

A window-smashing soldier with an imaginary army to back him up was penalized a total of $24.25 in city police court Wednesday.

Clarence W. Thornhill, Work Point Barracks, told the court he had no recollection of the night of November 20 when he smashed a pane of glass in the front door of the home of A. J. Barton, 203 Esquimalt.

Mr. Barton said the breaking of glass awoke him at 2.15 on the morning in question.

When he investigated he found Thornhill standing on the front porch in front of the broken window.

"We're taking over," Thornhill told him. "We have 20,000 troops down the road. Are you with us?"

Barton said he went to get some clothes on and Thornhill ran away. He gave chase, caught him once and lost him, so he went to a neighbor's to phone the police.

Thornhill told the court he had drunk four quarts of wine after seeing a show and had no recollection of events after finishing the fourth bottle.

Asked where he got the wine, he said he bought two bottles at the liquor store and two at a [illegible] Street cafe.

"Although you have no recollection of what you did, the intent to break the window must have been there," Magistrate H. C. Hall said.

He was fined $15 and charged $9.25 for the broken window.

Ald. Dowell Gets Post

Ald. Arthur Dowell has been appointed by Mayor Claude Harrison to take ex-alderman Donald Smith's place on the Greater Victoria Water Board for the remainder of the year.

Mr. Smith resigned from council to run for mayor.

Speeding in Saanich Curbed By Expanded Traffic Patrol

An expanded traffic patrol in the first two days of [illegible] Saanich is producing results [illegible].

[illegible] Tuesday was equally light and hope was high for slower, safer driving through roads in the municipality.

The worst offender during the first two days of the drive was a man who [illegible] 80-mile-an-hour [illegible].

[illegible] increased patrol has been designed mainly to stop through roads being used as speedways.

The patrol will be on the road from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. keeping a close eye on the Gorge and Tillicum and the Gorge and Harriet intersections, Glanford Avenue and Patricia Bay Highway at Glanford.

These areas have a high traffic accident ratio, Deputy Chief Pearson said.

During quiet hours the new patrol will cruise the municipality looking for speeders and drivers under the influence of alcohol.

To implement the patrol three men have been added to the Saanich force bringing the total strength up to 18.

Wells To Be Tested In Disease Outbreak

Wells in the Campbell River district will be tested in an effort to track down the source of jaundice infection which has been prevalent in the area for the past six months, Dr. J. S. Anderson, medical health officer of the Upper Vancouver Island Health Unit, said last night.

Dr. Anderson said there have been 30 to 40 cases of jaundice reported in the Campbell River district in the past few months, although no new cases have been reported in the last 10 days.

It is believed the intestinal disease is being transmitted by polluted dust, flies or water from infected wells. The disease is believed to be caused by a lack of proper sanitation.

Dr. Anderson said samples of well water will be gathered and sent to the provincial laboratory at Vancouver to be tested.

Symptoms of the disease are shivering and yellowing of the whites of the eyes. Debilitating effects last for three or four weeks.

Nanaimo Council Attracts Gallery

NANAIMO — Interest in the council meetings seems to be reaching a high point. Nearly every extra seat in the council chamber was filled as interested spectators sat through the meeting. Representatives of the Local Council of Women, Chamber of Commerce and individual citizens made up the audience.

Give Banquet For Visitor

Mrs. I. Beaton of Vancouver, grand mistress of B.C., was guest of honor at a banquet given by Purple Star No. 101, LOBA, when she paid her official visit to the lodge.

Other grand lodge officers present were Mrs. F. Hume of No. 101, junior deputy mistress, Mrs. H. Meler of New Westminster, juvenile director, Mrs. Maller of Kamloops, auditor, and Mrs. Ferguson of Quesnelle, secretary.

Three candidates were initiated at the banquet, and Mrs. L. Lucas, convener of the recent bazaar, stated that proceeds were $258.50.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting Wednesday, December 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Orange Hall.

Special Veal Sauce

Veal deserves special attention, so why not bake it in a sauce of red-ripe tomato and nippy cheese. Veal Cutlet Parmesan it's called, and it's irresistible.

The sauce epicurean as it tastes is simple to make. For the base use condensed cream of tomato soup, the kind you buy in tins at your local grocery store. Here's the complete recipe.

VEAL CUTLET PARMESAN

1 pound veal cutlet
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
½ cup bread crumbs
¼ cup salad oil or olive oil
1 cup sliced onions
1 clove garlic
¼ cup salad oil
1 10-ounce can condensed cream of tomato soup, undiluted
3 leaves fresh basil
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon cider vinegar
½ cup grated process Swiss cheese

Cut veal into 4 pieces. Add salt and pepper to beaten egg. Mix Parmesan cheese with bread crumbs. Dip cutlets in egg, then in bread crumbs. In ¼ cup salad oil in frying pan saute cutlets until golden brown. Remove to baking pan. Now using same frying pan saute onions and garlic in ¼ cup salad oil for 5 minutes. Remove garlic. Add tomato soup, basil, salt, pepper and vinegar. Simmer uncovered 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Pour over cutlets in baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 15 minutes. Sprinkle grated Swiss cheese over top and continue baking 15 minutes longer. Makes 4 servings.

Bazaar and Tea Raise $100

Mrs. William Blair, regent, welcomed guests and presented an orchid corsage to Mrs. James Baker in honor of her birthday and in appreciation of her work and assistance to the chapter. Mrs. George Mellor was given a corsage of carnations.

Convening the affair was Mrs. Emerson Smith and treasurer was Mrs. Harry Catterall. Tea arrangements were made by Mrs. Harry Marrion and Mrs. Alex Nichol, whose servateurs were Mrs. Malcolm Smith and Mrs. Robert Ferguson.

In charge of the superfluity stall was Mrs. J. L. Gaetz and Mrs. Wm. Morgan, home cooking Mrs. B. Gornall and Mrs. B. Rypes, fancy work, and variety [illegible] Mrs. Helen [illegible] and Mrs. Kate Mills, chicken dinner Mrs. T. [illegible], publicity Mrs. Young.

More than $100 was realized.

Many guests attended at the tea hour when Miss Norma Jones presided at the tea table with its fine lace cloth centred with a crystal bowl of variegated orchid chrysanthemums.

A bridge and canasta party was held in the evening convened by Mrs. [illegible] Mrs. Douglas Gosse assisted in serving refreshments.

Beauty and You

By MARION MATTHEWS

Do you take your eyes for granted? I don't mean their sight alone but their appeal and how they can contribute to your good looks. More and more [illegible] are winning [illegible] beauty and fashion [illegible] can do things for you in your immediate [illegible] if you but give them a chance.

[illegible] health is paramount to pretty eyes and if you are suffering from any physical disorder your eyes won't be at their best until you are well. See a doctor about them if you have any reason to suspect all isn't well with your sight or that there might be some organic trouble. When your health is at par and you get sufficient rest you will have clear bright eyes. This is only the beginning, however, for you must not [illegible] take care of the surrounding [illegible] to ward off lines and [illegible] you should give [illegible] to their expressive qualities.

Preserve [illegible] eye area [illegible] is less than other parts of the face with [illegible] formulated to help protect it and counteract dryness. Gently [illegible] is sensitive and easily irritated by rough massage. Use [illegible] over the entire area and leave [illegible] morning. While outdoors, [illegible] over the upper lids to keep them smooth and lustrous. This not only adds a touch of glamour but it keeps even young [illegible] during harsh weather that does so much to rob you of eye beauty.

To make wallpaper really [illegible] such as [illegible] sinks, stoves or in children's rooms, brush or spray the area with thin white shellac. Test on a piece of wallpaper first as the shellac may change the wall's [illegible] properties though it won't normally alter the color. Two coats will protect wall decorations such as maps and posters.

Unpredictable Toy Fads Make, Lose Fortunes

NEW YORK (NANA)—Most good toys, dolls and games remain popular for years, even decades, but many a fortune has been made or lost overnight with "fad" items which momentarily capture the interest of [illegible].

Such staple toy categories as electric trains, erector sets, velocipedes, skates, dolls, [illegible] etc., are the "bread and butter" items of the trade. [illegible] fads and crazes, however, interrupt their continuity [illegible] and disappear from top shop counters. [illegible]

Winning Contract

By Howard Schenken and Richard L. Frey

[illegible] And South had to [illegible] and a hope that North would have good support for the other major.

Actually a notrump contract would have been invincible and would have produced the best score especially as an opening lead of ace and another spade would have defeated four hearts. However West opened the nine of clubs and talented Life Master Harold Harvey seized the [illegible] and brought home his contract. It required [illegible] play.

The jack won the opening lead in clubs and South guessed the hearts correctly, finessing for East's queen. However, it took all of South's trumps to pull East's with West echoing in spades and North discarding a diamond. Two more club leads make certain West didn't have an exit card remaining in that suit and Harold didn't make the mistake of cashing dummy's last club. Instead he led a low diamond. If East played the jack South would win and immediately return the suit and East could not afford to overtake West's queen, nor would it help if he did. Actually East played low and West won the first diamond trick with the queen, exiting with the five.

North-South vulnerable. West dealer.

NORTH [illegible]

WEST [illegible] EAST [illegible]

SOUTH [illegible]

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
2♠*	[illegible]	Pass	4♥
All pass

(* Weak two-bid)

South won and plunked down the king of spades. West could make two spades but had to let dummy in to make the jack of spades and the last club.

Mayor Wins Reprieve for Nine Park Trees

City council yesterday went along with his recommendation that nine of the [illegible] doomed trees be saved for the present and that their fate be left to the [illegible] of the 1954 incoming council.

The three [illegible] and an order [illegible]. This was generally the course recommended by G. A. C. Clarke, tree expert engaged by the mayor to examine the Beacon Hill Park trees.

Parks superintendent W. H. Warren and several experts consulted by him had recommended [illegible] that the 12 trees be removed because they were dangerous.

In his report to the mayor, however, Mr. Clarke said only [illegible] were [illegible] suddenly reached their present condition.

[illegible] the past five years [illegible] Mr. Clarke reported. He said [illegible] the trees respond to treatment [illegible].

Mr. Clarke said the trees had been neglected [illegible] past years. [illegible]

[illegible]

Parks committee chairman Ald. Waldo Skillings wanted to know what Mr. Clarke's qualifications were. He said the experts consulted by Mr. Warren were top men in their field.

The mayor replied that "he knows all about trees" having worked for the [illegible] forest service. [illegible] He also stated that the experts [illegible] recommended that all 12 trees come down [illegible] some of them. He also said that [illegible].

Ald. Skillings said he [illegible] about the Beacon Hill [illegible] that the parks [illegible] the park and cutting down trees [illegible].

[illegible] this course, and [illegible] fees for this treatment." Ald. Skillings wanted to know.

"Don't worry, I'll pay them," said the mayor.

Ald. Skillings moved that all correspondence and reports on the matter be turned over to the parks committee with power to act. There was no seconder.

"You can't go ahead and cut them all down then," said the mayor. Ald. Brent Murdoch suggested that the matter be laid over for the 1954 council and in the meantime the three trees referred to be removed.

[illegible] Ald. Murdoch suggested the reports be turned over to the parks committee [illegible].

[illegible] said Ald. Skillings. [illegible]

Here is the beauty of truly fine furniture . . . graciously styled, solidly built of fine woods, superbly finished. Here, too, is home entertainment at its best. You enjoy all recorded music with the full brilliance and colour of RCA Victor's famous "Golden Throat" tone system. The new 3-speed automatic record changer is the world's easiest to operate . . . and the fine standard radio offers superlative performance. See the RCA Victor V-566 for all the things you want in a radio-phonograph . . . then compare cost! You'll agree that the V-566 is high quality entertainment — priced for every family!

SEE AND HEAR THE RCA VICTOR V-566 AT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING DEALERS!

Easier play for all your records!

The centre is the secret

With this ingenious new slip-on spindle, "45" records change from the centre — the "45" way. See how much more pleasure you get from hearing the only records and player designed for each other. For 33⅓ records slide off big spindle. For 78's, flip over needle lever. Plays up to ten 12-inch records or twelve 10-inch. Automatic last record shut-off. It's the finest 3-speed record changer ever built.

Victorians Win At Canary Show

Victoria canary breeders were among the winners of the 23rd annual open exhibition of roller canaries held by the British Columbia Roller Club here, November 17 to 21.

Local winners included Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoffmeister, who won first, second and third in the champion young bird class.

Other local winners were Mrs. W. Cross, fourth amateur old bird, fourth amateur young bird, third amateur team; Mrs. J. Eddie, third novice old bird, third novice team, Mr. and Mrs. L. Skelton, third amateur young bird, fourth amateur purchase bird, second amateur team.

The exhibition was held in the auditorium of Britannia Legion Branch.

Frustration Finally Ends

It took nine years, but Hugh Greig of 721 Violet finally did it: dealt himself a 29 cribbage hand. He's had two frustrating 28 hands in that time.

Mr. Greig and his wife Florence were killing an hour before Mr. Greig's shift started, when the five of clubs turned up to connect with the three other fives and the jack of clubs.

Cut Trucking Costs with a new 1954 DODGE "Job-Rated" TRUCK

new handsome design
new handling ease

You'll like the way these completely new, handsome design Dodge "Job Rated" trucks cut your hauling and delivery costs. Their lower centre of gravity makes them easier to handle under all conditions, and they have the shortest attainable turning radius, right and left, to speed your hauling. Further, they cut costs because they are "Job Rated" from engine to rear axle to fit your job . . . and truck engineered to stay on the job with a minimum of upkeep.

In the wide range of Dodge truck models you'll find one that fits your job exactly — a truck that will save and make money for you.

FOR FASTER DELIVERY
try the new streamlined Dodge "Job Rated" Town Panel, shown above. It is easier to load and unload ... easier to manoeuver. It's so much lower that the driver can quickly slip in and out of the seat with passenger car ease.

IT'S RESULTS THAT COUNT

When we offer a special then you can be sure it's a bargain. Last week we sold hundreds of plywood [illegible] in all thicknesses. They really went fast. Just in case you missed out on this special, here's another shipment [illegible]

12 x 48 ¼ end [illegible] plywood, ea.	30
12 x 48 ⅜ end [illegible] plywood, ea.	40

Then of course we have assorted bundles of small cuttings [illegible] ideal for toys, hobby work, etc.
Per [illegible] 50

Then look over our extra low prices on [illegible] Grade regular size panels. You'll find a plywood here for every purpose.

Churchill Acting To Quell Revolt

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Churchill acted Wednesday night to quell a revolt in his own Conservative party.

In an emergency cabinet meeting, Churchill ordered his two senior lieutenants—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Chancellor of the Exchequer Richard Butler—to defend the government's decision opposing an increase in the pensions of [illegible]

Eden and Butler will face rebellious Conservative MPs at a House of Commons committee session tonight. At least 36 Conservatives have joined 74 Labor members and a Liberal in signing a motion demanding that the government reverse itself and approve the pension boosts.

The revolt over pensions gave rise to reports that Field Marshal Earl Alexander might resign as defense minister. There was no confirmation.

The Liberal News Chronicle said in a front-page story that "unofficial" reports are circulating that the former governor-general of Canada is threatening to resign "after a row in the cabinet."

A second Conservative revolt flared in the House of Lords, where an imposing number of peers of all parties have denounced the government's plan to introduce commercial television. A similar battle is due [illegible] for debate in the Commons.

Some Conservatives also have challenged the government on tentative plans for withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone. That group, headed by Julian Amery, does not want the troops withdrawn under any circumstances on the ground that this would weaken Commonwealth defenses.

The Suez issue is hanging fire awaiting the outcome of deadlocked negotiations between Britain and Egypt.

The war pension issue in itself is not a major one. But some Conservative rebels are threatening to vote against the military budget early next year if the government doesn't give in. That could force the government's resignation and a general election.

Overseas Gifts By Express Must Go Soon

MONTREAL—Persons planning to express Christmas packages to friends and relatives overseas would be well advised to ship them without delay, according to A. R. Kerr, manager of the foreign department, Canadian Pacific Express Company, Montreal. Mr. Kerr said that the last steamer connection from any Canadian port that will ensure delivery overseas by Christmas Day will be the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Australia from Saint John, N.B., December 5.

Gift packages forwarded by express must not exceed 22 pounds gross weight, and provided their value does not exceed $25 no export permit is required. Each package must be plainly marked with the words "bona fide unsolicited gift," and must show the full name of the consignee. Gift should be well packaged, preferably in corrugated cartons, and wrapped in heavy paper, Mr. Kerr said.

Shot Fired in Air Halts Fleeing Prairie Convicts

BRANDON (CP)—One shot fired in the air brought about the surrender Wednesday of three young desperadoes who broke jail at Regina and led police on a hide-and-seek chase over a maze of Prairie roads.

An RCAF helicopter was called into the two-province pursuit but it was a tip from a farmer that led to the recapture of the trio near Hartney, Man., 35 miles southwest of here.

The burst for freedom took the rifle-carrying jailbreakers more than 250 miles in a stolen car after they bolted from a detention hut just west of the main Regina jail building at 7.15 p.m. Tuesday.

All three escapees were serving terms for car theft. Police identified them as George McGurk and Kenneth Taylor, both of Saskatoon, and Guy Louselle of Quebec.

Farmer Bill Muir of the Hartney district had heard a broadcast describing the car stolen from a Regina parking lot and spotted the fugitives at a tourist camp, where they stopped briefly.

After [illegible] RCMP [illegible] Brandon, Muir, accompanied by other farmers in trucks, kept the stolen car under watch, following it at a safe distance.

A police posse caught up with the jailbreakers as they stopped along the banks of the Souris River. Seeing the police approach, the youths first attempted to rush for freedom but stopped when a shot was fired in the air.

Police said they had a .33 calibre rifle in their possession.

New Arabian King Pledges Friendship

CAIRO (UP)—Oil-rich Saudi Arabia's friendship with the West and welcome to foreign oil companies were pledged anew Monday by King Saud Ibn Abdel Aziz.

The new sovereign said he would carry on the policy of his father, King Ibn Saud, who died November 9, and would never tolerate Communist or any other propaganda in his desert kingdom.

The king made his first statement to the press on international policy in a long-distance interview with United Press. His answers to cabled questions were delivered by the Saudi Arabian embassy here Monday.

Crown Prince Feisal, the king's brother and foreign minister, relayed the questions to the king and his answers to Cairo.

"What policy does Your Majesty intend to pursue toward the United States and the Western world?" the king was asked.

"Policy which His Majesty wishes to pursue toward the United States and the Western world is the same as that which his great late father pursued, namely to be friendly toward friendly countries and improve relations with all western countries in accordance with the United Nations charter by which this country is bound," was the answer.

Asked about Saudi Arabia's attitude toward foreign oil companies, the king's reply was:

"The attitude of Saudi Arabia toward foreign oil companies is that of a righteous partner. We shall obtain from them our complete rights and give them their full dues. Moreover, we shall extend our protection to them, and give them all legitimate facilities and assistance. We shall continue to do this in our desire to maintain forever the friendly relations existing between us."

The Arabian-American Oil Company developed the kingdom's vast oil resources.

An American military mission is now in Saudi Arabia. The king said its services "will be retained until the task for which it was engaged is completed."

Canadian Troops in Korea Attending Church School

IN KOREA (CP).—Located on a three-acre plateau overlooking the Imjin River and just north of the 38th parallel is a small Canadian camp officially designated "religious training area."

In the camp, near where Canadians were involved in savage fighting, Canadian Army chaplains from 25th Infantry Brigade units are conducting the first course of the interdenominational church membership school. It is attended by 18 soldiers wishing to prepare themselves for membership in the church of their choice in their Canadian home towns.

On the opening day of the six-week course, Brig. Jean Victor Allard, brigade commander, told the padres and students:

"The brigade is 100 per cent behind the school. In the physical war against Communism, as well as in the war of ideas, religious faith is a powerful weapon. You, who are students here, will go back to your units as ambassadors of this venture and what it stands for. What you are learning here is good for you and good for your brigade."

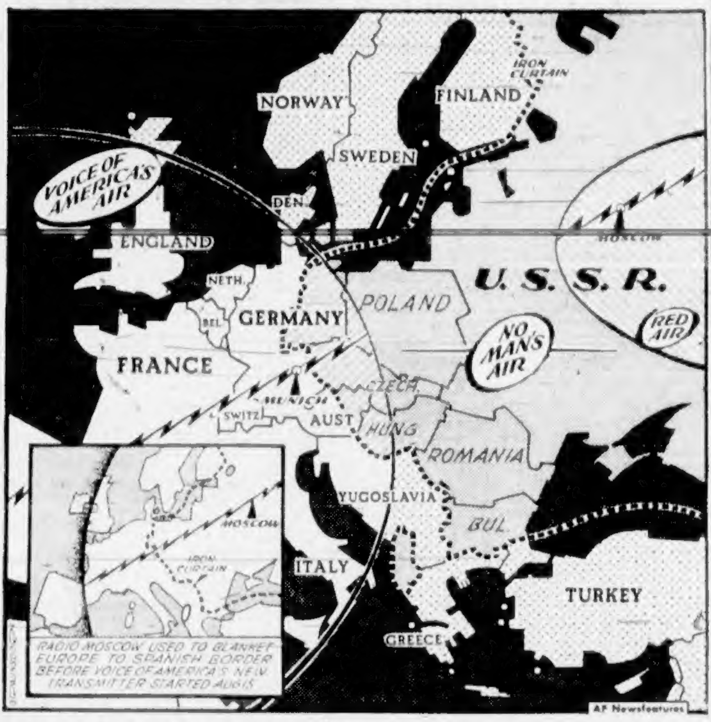
Powerful Munich Station Wrecks Soviet Propaganda



BY CLARKE BEACH
AP Newsfeatures Writer

One of Russia's biggest broadcasting operations has been all but wrecked by the new Voice of America (VOA) longwave transmitter at Munich.

Radio Moscow used to spread its whopping fibs by longwave radio for 1,700 miles through all Europe down to the Pyrenees each night. Now that program can't be heard more than 200 miles west of Moscow.

"NO MAN'S AIR"

The powerful Munich station captured the air from Yugoslavia to Denmark when it commenced operations August 15. It is twice as strong as Radio Moscow and broadcasts on the same frequency—173 kilocycles. The area extending from 250 miles east of Munich to 200 miles west of Moscow is a kind of "No Man's Air." Interference from the two stations prevents understandable speech reception from either.

It is a big loss to the Soviets. They used that program for one of their heaviest propaganda operations. They could count on a large audience, since longwave is popular in northern Europe. Most sets there receive longwave as well as medium or standard, as it is called in the United States.

The United States had no longwave stations until it opened the one at Munich. Now during the day it can broadcast for 400 to 500 miles through Europe, reaching a large portion of the Soviet satellite audience. Since Radio Moscow also is effective during the day for only 400 to 500 miles, it does not interfere with VOA's daytime programs.

At night the Munich longwave transmitter can be heard for about 250 miles to the east, where Radio Moscow begins to interfere. Since longwave rides the air in all directions, instead of being focused as VOA's medium and shortwave broadcasts are, it can be heard at night north, south and west for about 1,500 to 1,700 miles.

NOT JAMMING

The VOA doesn't consider this a jamming operation. When you jam, you simply broadcast noise on the frequency you want, with the purpose of ruining somebody's program. Munich broadcasts a program, not just noise.

It isn't polite in diplomatic circles to jam radio broadcasts. Nearly all countries, including the Soviet Union and the United States, have signed an international convention agreeing not to engage in jamming activities.

Russia, of course, jams American broadcasts. But she has explained in the United Nations that she feels she is justified in doing so to prevent her people from being told a lot of "lies"—which is the Russian word for VOA's factual reports, often the opposite of Radio Moscow's fables.

VOA officials decline to explain how they decided to use the Moscow frequency of 173 kilocycles when they were preparing to broadcast by longwave at Munich. But their reasoning isn't hard to figure out.

All the longwave frequencies in Europe are in use. This is shown in the records of the European Broadcasting Union, a sort of trade association of European governments engaged in broadcasting. Naturally, VOA didn't choose to encroach on the frequency of an allied government. It was going to have to muscle into a frequency used by an Iron Curtain country. The logical one was that of Radio Moscow, since it was the Soviet Union's most important station and would be the hardest for Russia to jam.

If Russia jams frequency 173, it will ruin its own program. It is difficult and expensive to shift from one frequency to another, but if Russia does that in order to jam Munich, then Munich also can shift its frequency, choosing Minsk or some other Iron Curtain channel.

MINOR INSTALLATION

VOA has had medium and shortwave broadcasting from Munich for a long time. It was a minor installation, however, compared to the new one, which has million-watt power.

Two other VOA stations of the same power also have recently been put in operation, one north of Manila, in the Philippines, and the other on the island of Okinawa. Each of these three stations are many times more powerful than any commercial stations in the United States.

The two new Far East stations permit much deeper penetration into China, Siberia and Southeast Asia. They are both shortwave and medium — for which nearly all receiving sets in the Orient are designed.

The new medium broadcasts from those Pacific stations have a 1,600-mile range. Until they went into operation, the medium range for VOA stations there was only 900 miles.

Shortwave, which is erratic and unpredictable, sometimes extends halfway around the world. It is most popular in the tropics, where static interferes with medium or longwave broadcasting.

Donations To SPCA At $722

Donations rolling in to the SPCA's current drive for funds totaled $722 at noon yesterday.

The two-week campaign opened on Monday with an objective of $10,000.

A Society spokesman said the drive was going satisfactorily, particularly in view of the fact that no canvass is being held in connection with the campaign, except by mail.

He expressed hope, however, that the lack of a canvass would not deter the SPCA's many well-wishers from mailing donations direct to the SPCA shelter, 111 Wilson Street.

The official said the society is not spending any money on its campaign for funds.

Bout With Pneumonia

Last Lost Hunter Rests in Hospital

The last of the hunters hunted at Sooke, William Sidney Smith, 1145 Burdette, is recovering from an all-night ordeal in cold, soaking-wet woods.

Mr. Smith, a union brother of 30-year-old Ronald Murray, lost for two days in the Sooke wilderness, got lost himself when he volunteered to hunt for Mr. Murray.

After spending Monday night in the woods, he walked out unassisted Tuesday afternoon and retired to bed with a bout of pneumonia.

Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Murray are reported to be resting comfortably and recovering from the ordeal.

Sidney — Mrs. G. F. Gilbert was re-elected president of the Sidney War Memorial Park Board at the annual meeting.

Also on the executive are J. L. Elliott, vice-president; A. W. Murphy, secretary; W. Burrows, treasurer. All three were elected by acclamation.

Parking Lot Thieves Take Hub Caps, Gas

The parking lot of the B.C. Forest Products, Gorge, the target of a recent series of thefts, was hit again overnight Tuesday, police said Wednesday.

J. Murdoch, 2616 Fernwood, reported to police Wednesday that two chrome hub caps, a gas tank cap and a half tank of gas were taken from his car while it was in the lot Tuesday

Robert Spouse, 1748 Emerson, reported that a car radio was stolen from his car Tuesday night while it was parked in front of St. Joseph's Hospital.

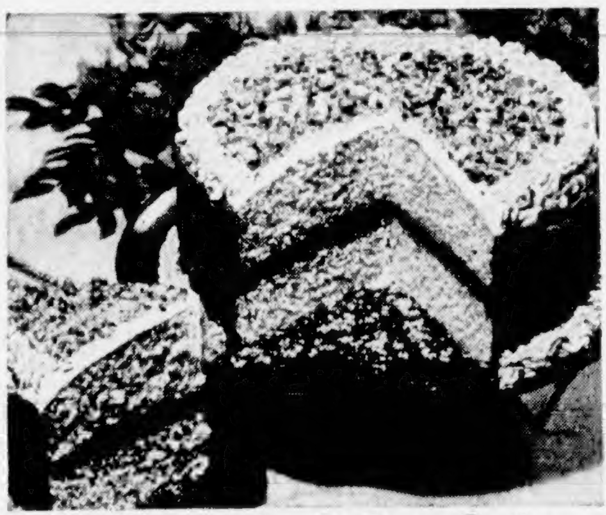
A MONTHLY SELECTION OF HELPFUL HINTS AND RECIPES

It's party time now—

SO TRY THESE RECIPES FOR EASY ENTERTAINING



Bake a Barrel-of-Fun Cake

What a party it'll be with this delightful, delectable Barrel-of-Fun Cake! It's fun to make too, with Quick-Mix Jewel—you'll whip it up in minutes. Jewel has the same wonder ingredients as the costliest shortenings and gives the same higher, lighter cakes . . . but it costs pennies per cake less! To make this cake you use the time and muss-saving quick-mix method in which new Jewel works so well. Have all ingredients at room temperature. Preheat oven to 375°F.

1. Place ½ CUP SNOW-WHITE QUICK-MIX JEWEL in bowl. No need to cream at all.

2. Sift together into bowl: 1 CUP GRANULATED SUGAR, 2½ CUPS SIFTED CAKE FLOUR, ¼ TEASPOON SODA, 1 TEASPOON BAKING POWDER, 1 TEASPOON SALT, ½ TEASPOON GINGER, ½ TEASPOON NUTMEG, ½ TEASPOON CINNAMON, ¼ TEASPOON CLOVES. Add ½ CUP BROWN SUGAR, and ¾ CUP SOUR MILK. (To make the 1¼ cups of sour milk required in the recipe, place 4 teaspoons vinegar in measuring cup. Fill to 1 cup mark with sweet milk. Then combine with ¼ cup more sweet milk.) Beat only 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand, using 150 strokes per minute. (Quick-Mix Jewel cuts beating time in half!) Keep batter scraped from sides and bottom of bowl with rubber scraper.

3. Add ½ CUP more SOUR MILK, 3 EGGS, and ½ TEASPOON MAPLE FLAVOURING. Beat for 2 more minutes. That's all. Just three easy steps and your Jewel Quick-Mix cake is done! Pour equal amounts of batter into 2 nine-inch cake pans lined with two layers of wax paper. Bake at 375°F., for 30 minutes.

Frosting

1. Cream ⅓ CUP QUICK-MIX JEWEL, ¼ TEASPOON SALT, and ½ TEASPOON MAPLE FLAVOURING until soft and fluffy. Add alternately 1½ CUPS SIFTED ICING SUGAR and ¼ CUP DOUBLE-STRENGTH HOT COFFEE. Beat until smooth and creamy.

2. Divide frosting into two bowls. To one add ¼ CUP SIFTED COCOA and 1 TABLESPOON DOUBLE-STRENGTH COFFEE. Beat until smooth.

3. Fill cake layers with one half of cocoa filling. Frost sides with remaining cocoa filling. Frost top of cake with half the maple frosting. Sprinkle with finely chopped nuts. Using a cake decorator, make a fluted edging to top and bottom of cake with the rest of the mocha frosting.

Stand back and admire.

Tea Biscuits for 6 or 60

Having a group of ladies to tea? Serve them these delicious hot biscuits made with the Jewel Biscuit Mix. Prepare the mix ahead; then whip up whatever quantity of biscuits you need at a moment's notice. This mix yields about 9 cups, and because it's made with Jewel, it keeps without refrigeration. I've tested Jewel against all other shortenings in hundreds of different recipes and every time the Jewel-baked biscuits not only looked better but tasted better than those made with any other shortening. Save time and money with this Jewel Biscuit Mix!

Jewel Biscuit Mix

Sift together 8 CUPS FLOUR, 4 TABLESPOONS BAKING POWDER and 4 TEASPOONS SALT.

With pastry knives, fork or finger tips cut in 1 CUP JEWEL SHORTENING, until mixture is the consistency of cornmeal. See how much better-blending Jewel is! Store in covered container. It is now ready to use for biscuits for 6 or 60.

Biscuits for 6

To 1 CUP JEWEL BISCUIT MIX gradually add ⅓ CUP MILK, to form a soft dough. Turn onto lightly floured board and knead just enough to make the dough smooth (about 6 times). Roll or pat to ½ inch thickness. Cut in squares or use floured cookie cutter. Bake on an ungreased sheet in a hot oven (450°F.) from 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot.

Biscuits for 60

Make up biscuit lots using 3 CUPS BISCUIT MIX to 1 CUP MILK. This yields 18 large biscuits. Repeat until you have the desired number of biscuits. Three lots is plenty for a crowd. The biscuit dough can be refrigerated and baked off at the last minute to serve piping hot.

HOSTESS HINTS

1. Have a Pepperpot Party. Let each of your female guests bring her favourite dish. The fare will be delicious because all the girls will want to show off their cooking.

2. Entertain the easy way with Swift's Premium Table-Ready Meats. Arrange them on a tempting platter and serve supper buffet style.

3. If you want to be rested for your party, prepare as much of it as you can the day before. Keep last minute cooking down to a minimum.

Sausage Rolls

Perfect for a supper party, these Sausage Rolls can be served with a hot vegetable casserole, and a tossed green salad on the side. Finish up with ice cream or cheese and crackers, and coffee.

1. Place ONE POUND OF SWIFT'S BROOKFIELD SAUSAGES in skillet. Add ½ CUP WATER. Simmer for 5 minutes. Pour off any remaining water.

2. Using a pastry blender, fork, two knives or finger tips, cut ⅓ CUP JEWEL SHORTENING into 2 CUPS SIFTED FLOUR and 1 TEASPOON SALT, until mixture is the consistency of coarse cornmeal. Jewel blends easily, and makes flakier, more tender pastry.

3. Blending with a fork, gradually sprinkle enough water over the flour mixture until dry spots disappear.

Shape into a ball with waxed paper. Divide dough in half.

4. Turn half quantity of dough onto lightly floured board. Knead twice to blend thoroughly. Roll out lightly into an 8" x 10" rectangle. With spatula divide into 8 smaller rectangles.

5. Brush cooked sausage with PREPARED MUSTARD. Roll up sausage in pastry strips. Place edge side down, ½ inch apart, in shallow baking pan. Repeat until sausages and remainder of dough are used up.

6. Bake about 15 minutes at 450°F. Yields 16 rolls.

Wait for High Power

TV Work Slowed By Winds, Rain

BY ROY PARRETT

High winds and rain have delayed the opening of Seattle's powerful new Channel 5 television station. The new KING-TV transmitter was scheduled to start operation today.

Construction of the new steel antenna tower on Queen Anne Hill is only half completed, owing to adverse weather conditions, officials reported Wednesday.

Six or seven working days will be required to complete the 100,000-watt station.

But it is an ill wind that blows no one any good, and local viewers are receiving greatly-improved reception from KTNT-TV in Tacoma, because of recent storms.

The Tacoma station was struck by lightning and its antenna system damaged beyond repair.

Greatly improved reception has been noted here since KTNT installed a new high-gain aerial system last Sunday.

FIRST PICTURE

CBUT'S first television transmission took place this week during a closed-circuit test of microwave equipment by CBC engineers in the CBC's television studios in Vancouver, the corporation reports.

The first Canadian television pictures to be transmitted on the West Coast were projected over a distance of 50 feet.

The following day a transmission of CBUT's test pattern and test program material from the studio building to the transmitter on Mount Seymour was successfully beamed by microwave.

Although it is possible to send a picture to the transmitter, CBC engineers say that no "on-air" signal will be feasible until the early part of December.

The closed circuit transmission resulted when some of the telecine equipment was set up for testing at the studios. The telecine unit directed the picture through a multiplexer, through an iconoscope camera, between two microwave parabolic antennas and thence to a picture monitor at the transmitter building.

U.S. Withdraws Thunderjet Wing

TOKYO (AP) — The United States Air Force announced Tuesday the veteran 49th fighter-bomber wing of the 5th Air Force—about 190 Thunderjets—has been pulled out of Korea. However, the fighter-bombers are at Japanese bases and will be able to strike immediately if the Korean war breaks out again, the air force said.

Merit System for Police Force Urged By Candidate in Saanich

A Saanich police commission candidate has asked the ratepayers to "insist that a genuine merit system be set up to replace all pull."

Candidate S. A. Lownds disclosed his seven-point free-swinging campaign platform yesterday."

It is expected his platform will add fuel to the annual stewardship meeting of the municipality next month. Date and place of the meeting have not been fixed definitely.

Mr. Lownds, an 18-year resident of Saanich and a World War veteran, also disclosed his platform includes the request to "give honest policemen the respect they deserve."

ENCOURAGE AWARDS

He suggested that giving of awards to policemen who have distinguished themselves in the line of duty should be encouraged.

All recruits should be given thorough training before going on patrol to keep the profession "on the highest point of efficiency" and to help save the municipality money, equipment, civil liability and lives.

He stressed also in his platform adequate numbers of men for the department, modern equipment.

Mr Lownds will address ratepayers at their annual meeting, along with Thomas Nixon and G. Stanley Eden. Mr. Eden is seeking re-election to the police commission.

Also expected to add interest to the meeting are platforms of Reeve Joseph Casey, who is seeking re-election, and E. P. Cummins, who resigned as councillor recently to contest the post.

Esquimalt's meeting December 10 in the Boilermakers Hall, Esquimalt Road, also may hear active campaigning between Reeve A. C. Wurtele and new candidate Andrew Whisker.

The reeve said recently that some of Mr. Whisker's comments on municipal business were not correct.

The municipal meeting will be in conjunction with the Ratepayers' Association, whose acting president A. Harte will be chairman. All candidates for council will be present.

Without issues so far is Oak Bay municipality. The annual meeting there is scheduled December 9.

Manning Takes Oil, Gas Report To St. Laurent

EDMONTON (CP)—Premier Manning of Alberta left Edmonton by air Wednesday for Ottawa, carrying the "final and complete" copy of the petroleum and natural gas conservation board's report on the province's natural gas reserves. It is on this report that any decision regarding export of Alberta gas will be made.

Mr. Manning was due to arrive at Ottawa late Wednesday. He will confer with Prime Minister St. Laurent on the gas export question, and return here at the week end.

He will meet next week with his cabinet to discuss the report and the Ottawa talks. Following that, Mr. Manning is expected to announce his government's decision on gas export.

Two members of the conservation board will be with Mr. Mannnig at the Ottawa conferences. I. N. McKinnon, board chairman, and Dr. G. W. Govier are to fly east from Calgary and meet the premier at Ottawa.

Count Must Pay For Practical Joke

STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — Stockholm city court has ordered a Swedish count to pay 5,000 kroner (about $965) compensation to 10 other aristocrats who were burned when he exploded their balloons at a fancy-dress ball. The count was said to have exploded 50 gas-filled balloons with his glowing cigarette as a practical joke during the ball.

New Talks Held On Strike

Lumbermen from both the northern and southern Interior, along with representatives of the striking IWA, turned up Wednesday for another conference with government officials on the Interior lumber workers' strike.

Northern Interior manufacturers earlier had threatened to boycott the meeting.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett said after the meeting that labor and management had provided information he had asked for at an earlier meeting, and had been asked to provide still more information.

The opposing groups will meet with the government again next Wednesday.

Cleaning fluids help to save money in cleaning clothes but they are often exceedingly dangerous to use. Carbon tetrachloride fumes are dangerous if inhaled and the liquid should never be used unless there is plenty of ventilation to carry away all fumes.

Course Invitations Out For Warden Instructors

Invitations to attend the warden service instructors' course early next year have been sent out by L. G. Hatcher, target area civil defense director.

The 12-week course is to be given at civil defense headquarters in the Market Building, Cormorant Street, one night each week. It will begin January 11.

It is hoped to hold special exercises on three Sundays—January 24, February 7 and March 7—from 10 a.m. to noon.

The instructors' course will be based upon a similar course given earlier in the year at the civil defense college in Ottawa.

Subjects will cover wardens' duties, co-operation with other services, fire-fighting for householders, post area map, panic control, the household register, self-help parties, message writing and reporting, and special hazards.

"Custom-made" Coffee New Breakfast Vogue

Marvellous 100% Real Coffee Made "Strong, Medium or Mild" Right in the Cup

At breakfast you could always get your toast light or dark—your bacon medium or well-done—your eggs, 2, 3 or 4-minute boiled. But your coffee? Well, you just got coffee!

The coffee might be too strong for you—it tasted bitter. Or too mild for you—it tasted weak. But if you were in the minority—too bad! After all, one pot of coffee can't satisfy everybody's-taste.

But then came the revolution—the "Coffee Revolution"! Now the most forgotten "little man" can get just the cup of coffee he likes! Seriously, though, it's the women who make the coffee who brought on the revolution! It was they who discovered the wonderful new Instant Chase & Sanborn, and started serving it for breakfast.

First of all, here's 100% real coffee that really tastes like it. Chase & Sanborn scientists saw to that! They took on the job of producing an "instant" worthy of Chase & Sanborn's 100-year-old coffee reputation. They never relaxed till they had succeeded in extracting from the finest coffee beans the color and texture—the rich robust flavor and aroma of freshly ground coffee.

Next, housewives decided that this definitely superior "instant" plainly belongs whenever and wherever coffee is served. And then, everybody caught on to the other important benefit. Cups of Instant Chase & Sanborn can be "custom-made" to each person's taste. Goodbye to the old one-pot handicap!

Farewell to Grounds

For the housewife, Instant Chase & Sanborn means the end of that doleful after-meal chore of scouring a stained coffee pot and disposing of coffee grounds. Here is the modern, dainty, trouble-free way of serving fine coffee.

Budgeteers are excited about the savings on Instant Chase & Sanborn too. The regular size jar makes about the same number of cups as a pound of regular ground coffee. Yet it sells up to 40¢ less than a pound of regular coffee.

THIS REALLY IS MY COFFEE!

INSTANT Chase & Sanborn 100% REAL COFFEE
New Instant Chase & Sanborn is 100% real coffee—and tastes like it. Rousing, rich-flavored coffee—ready with its magical lift the moment you add the hot water.

It's your kind of coffee—made by people with nearly 100 years of coffee experience.

One sip and you'll agree—it's so good you'll make it your regular coffee!

Now!..the Flavor and Aroma of Freshly Ground Coffee Instantly!

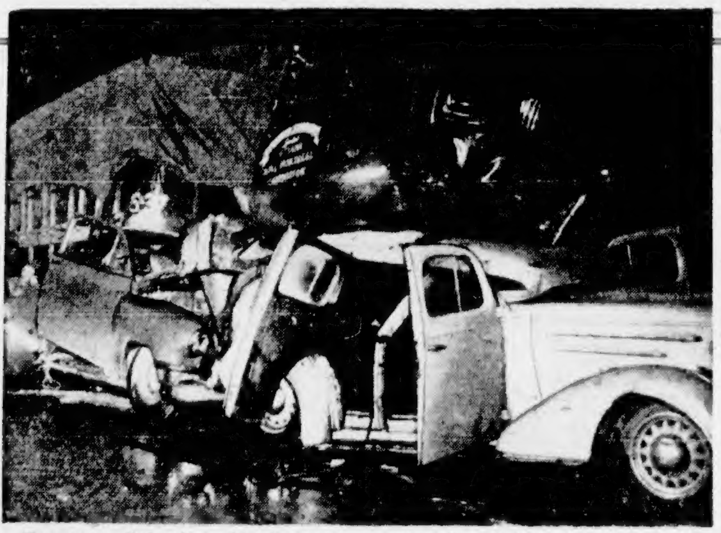
Grinding Crash Kills Two



Two men died when this transport truck, carrying an 18-ton load, climbed over the tops of two stalled cars in heavy fog near Montreal. Alcide Hanault, 37, and Krisopher Hanson, 45, both of Montreal, were killed in one car. Six other persons were injured. —(CP photo.)

EX-CONVICT HELD AS MASTER THIEF

Queen, Duke Take Swim in Caribbean

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP)—Thousands of native sugar cane workers scrambled from the fields and lined the highway Wednesday for a glimpse of Queen Elizabeth as she rode in an open silver-grey limousine under a broiling sun.

The natives screamed out greetings and waved at the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh on the 120-mile ride from Montego Bay to the British colony's capital city here. The Queen, wearing a short-sleeved thin silk dress and matching blue hat, smiled back.

Along the way, the Queen and duke changed into bathing suits in chalets specially fitted for them at the Silver Sands Club and splashed happily in the Caribbean.

The Queen showed no signs of weariness.

After a three-day stay on this Caribbean island, the largest in the British West Indies, the Royal couple will set sail in the luxury liner Gothic for Britain's Pacific Ocean lands on their six-month world tour.

Smiling and looking cool despite a temperature well in the 80's, the Queen took the salute from the guard of honor against a backdrop of towering coconut palms and mountains ringing the blue bay. She is the first reigning British sovereign to visit this colony.

Sir Hugh Foot, Jamaica's governor, who wore a white uniform with giant plumed helmet, stepped forward to greet the Queen as she stepped from the plane. Elizabeth wore white gloves, peep-toe white shoes and carried a white handbag.

The duke wore sunglasses and pilot wings over an admiral's white uniform.

White-haired William Bustamante, Jamaica's prime minister, was introduced to the Queen by Foot. In turn, Bustamante introduced her to representatives of the colony's executive council and delegates from other West Indian territories.

E. H. Laike of Antigua handed Elizabeth an address of welcome on behalf of all her West Indian territories. It said, in part:

"It is indeed our dearest wish that we should build a new dominion here in the West Indies to take an honorable place with the other dominions of Your Majesty's world-wide commonwealth."

Jenner Protests Canada's Terms

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada Wednesday informed the United States that she is willing to arrange a secret meeting between Igor Gouzenko — if Gouzenko agrees—and "any person" designated by the U.S. government.

But Senator William Jenner, chairman of the U.S. Senate internal security sub-committee, balked at one stipulation laid down by Canada: That it must give its approval before any Gouzenko testimony could be made public.

The Canadian reply to the second U.S. request that Jenner's committee be permitted to question Gouzenko was tabled in the Commons. This reply and Mr. Pearson's 3,500-word outline of Canada's position in the controversy made it clear the government thinks any meeting between Gouzenko and the committee would be fruitless because all his information has long since been given to U.S. authorities.

The reply said such a meeting must be held "under Canadian auspices" — obviously meaning Canada.

The reply disclosed that in 1949 Canada arranged a secret meeting in Ottawa between Gouzenko and representatives of a U.S. Senate judiciary subcommittee. The interview unearthed no new information whatsoever, Mr. Pearson said. It was held on the understanding Canada would have to approve any testimony made public.

Gouzenko, meanwhile, said for the third time that he is ready and willing to meet subcommittee members—in Canada and in secret.

Mr. Pearson, speaking before packed galleries, disclosed that several years ago Canada passed confidentially to the U.S. evidence from Gouzenko that the secretary to then U.S. State Secretary Stettinius was a Soviet agent.

In Washington, Senator Jenner said he felt his group "could not receive evidence vital to the security to the United States, and the United States alone, and commit itself not to make it available to Congress if necessary."

Information laid before Congress becomes public.

Jenner said he would be willing to send a sub-committee member to talk to Gouzenko in Canada and find out what information—he has about espionage in the United States. Then, he said, the sub-committee would like to "address itself" to the question of what to do about the evidence.

Mr. Pearson was told of the Jenner statement Wednesday night. He said: "We came to our decision after careful consideration. We will look carefully at any new proposal that may come from the state department."

Other government sources said it is extremely unlikely Canada will back down on this stand. The government had just made an important statement in the Commons on its position and there had been expressions of approval from all sections of the opposition.

Third Power Asked About White

Canada Not Involved

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson politely rapped FBI director J. Edgar Hoover on the knuckles Wednesday for saying it was a "high-placed Canadian source which in 1946 had questioned the loyalty of the late Harry Dexter White.

Mr. Pearson said the source was a security liaison officer of a friendly third power. He did not identify the source. He said the information concerning White had originated with the FBI itself, which apparently had not recognized this when it was returned from Ottawa by the third power's security officer.

Hoover said in a letter to the White House in 1946—the letter, to Canada's annoyance, was made public last week—that a "high-placed" Canadian source had sought assurance from the FBI concerning White's loyalty.

U.S. Attorney-General Herbert Brownell charged November 6 that former President Truman made White a director of the International Monetary Fund while knowing White was a Soviet agent.

Mr. Pearson said the RCMP in the winter of 1945-46 received a message from the FBI saying it appeared White might be a Soviet agent and asking for possible corroboration. The RCMP had no evidence.

In 1946, when White's name was before the U.S. Senate for appointment to the International Monetary Fund, the official of the third power sent his message to the FBI.

This message, Mr. Pearson said, apparently was designed to find out whether the White mentioned in the FBI warning was the same person nominated for the fund. This "informal message" might well have been passed to Hoover as Canadian information, which it was not, he said.

Logger Killed Near Youbou

DUNCAN—A 54-year-old logger was killed almost instantly when crushed by a log at Camp Six, Youbou, Tuesday afternoon.

Melvin Howe suffered crushing injuries to the head and chest, while bucking a log. Reports from the B.C. Forest Products division at Youbou are that a log which was resting against the one which Mr. Howe was bucking came down on top of him. He was working alone at the time.

Drew Asks Calm

OTTAWA (CP)—Opposition leader Drew Wednesday called for "self discipline and restraint" in throwing criticism across international boundaries.

Speaking in the Commons, he decried "confusion" that had grown up in the past week over U.S. requests to question Igor Gouzenko about Harry Dexter White.

He suggested the incident could do no good to relations between Canada and the United States.

Mr. Drew was particularly critical of a suggestion from one U.S. speaker that External Affairs Minister Pearson—a political opponent of Mr. Drew—might have Communist sympathies.

"I do not believe," he said, "that any sensible Canadian thinks for one moment that Mr. Pearson has any sympathy whatever for Communism . . . every one of us resents an imputation of that kind against the secretary of state for external affairs.

"If there could be this much disturbance over such a relatively minor occurrence," Mr. Drew said, "I shudder to think what might happen if the almost incredible event occurred that we were to have some real misunderstanding with the U.S."

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, said the Commons should "back up" the government's position. The House should make it abundantly clear that it has confidence in Mr. Pearson.

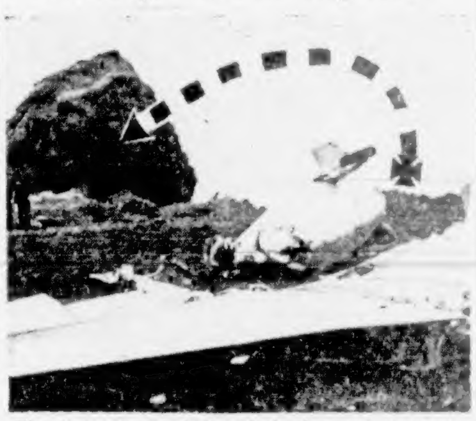
"No one with any sense whatsoever could charge him with any degree of friendship with Communism or the imperial Soviet Union," Mr. Coldwell said.

Boy Missing On Mainland

WEST VANCOUVER (BUP)—Police were searching Wednesday for nine-year-old Victor Kilpin, who was missing from his home in West Vancouver since noon Tuesday.

He was last reported seen at school, where he told chums he was "going to see a sawdust truck."

Jet-Propelled Into Haystack



The fortunate proximity of the haystack (arrow) miraculously saved the life of a 20-year-old Swedish pilot who crash-landed his jet plane into a hayfield near Stockholm, Sweden. The pilot, Hans Ingmar Bladh, strapped to a catapult seat, was hurled some 50 yards through the air into the haystack, boring his way into the hay like a projectile.—(Central Press Canadian.)

Heavy Quake Rocks Japan

Lights went out, dishes were smashed and thousands of frightened Japanese awoke and ran into the streets when the temblor struck. However, police reported no casualties or heavy damage.

An after-shock shook Tokyo six hours later, and officials said there would probably be other after-shocks.

The earthquake was recorded on the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory seismograph near Victoria as a shock of 7½ to 8 magnitude—one of the largest ever recorded.

No quake in history has recorded more than 8½ magnitude, observatory officials said.

Forceps Mislaid Inside Woman

EDMONTON (CP)—An Edmonton woman was awarded $4,000 damages in Supreme Court Wednesday in a suit against Dr. L. A. Miller, who she said left a pair of 6¼-inch forceps in her abdomen after an operation.

The operation was performed in September, 1947, and the forceps were removed in a second operation in November, 1952.

The woman, Mrs. Alois Gloning, said she suffered discomfort throughout the period the forceps were in her stomach, and at times was unable to do her housework.

Mrs. Gloning testified before Chief Justice C. C. McLaurin that during an examination in April, 1952, she complained of a noticeable lump on her left side and was told by Dr. Miller it was a swollen gland that "would go away."

She said that during another examination in late October, 1952, when she complained about back pains, Dr. Miller recommended she visit the cancer clinic. X-rays there disclosed the presence of the forceps.

Thousands of Trees Bound for U.S.

Christmas greenery from British Columbia is on its way to markets throughout the western United States. The first of 19 railway carloads of Christmas trees and holly was shipped from Langford Tuesday. The 5,500 trees were cut on Salt Spring Island and trucked to Langford, where Mrs. R. Pigeon and Stuart Walsh, Los Angeles agent, examined them before loading. Next week loading operations move to Duncan. J. Hofert, Ltd., of Kamloops is handling the contract.

Wife, Son Arrested

'Rags to Riches' Move Made In $681,700 Daring Robbery

BOSTON (UP)—A jobless ex-convict, his wife and shy student son were arrested yesterday in connection with history's largest armored car robbery, a $681,700 theft that apparently helped pay for the boy's engineering education.

Mrs. Margaret M. O'Brien, 42, and 19-year-old George D. O'Brien Jr., a junior at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, were charged with receiving part of the stolen money.

The husband and wife were arrested at the $25,000 home at suburban Wollaston where they made a "rags to riches" move early this year from a third floor walkup in Boston's crowded Dorchester section.

The boy was seized on the Tech campus at Cambridge where fellow engineering students and faculty members had assumed he was the brilliant son of some well-to-do business man.

Hassan said that "others" definitely were involved in the Danvers theft the loot of which exceeded by $25[illegible],000 the previous record armored car robbery. That occurred in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1934.

Brought before a U.S. commissioner for arraignment, the father and son kept a tight-lipped silence and covered their faces when photographers attempted to get their pictures.

Mrs. O'Brien, a plain matronly-looking housewife, stared stonily ahead.

There was little in the O'Brien's home life in the residential section of Wollaston to suggest that they were suspected of complicity in the biggest cash theft since the $1,219,000 Brink's hold-up here two years earlier.

J. J. Kelly, special agent in charge of the Boston FBI office, said "no comment" when asked if the senior O'Brien was a suspect in that case.

O'Brien was charged with actually taking part in the theft. His wife and son were charged with receiving stolen money.

Steel Men End Strike

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winnipeg steel workers, in the eighth week of a strike, have voted to return to work, a union spokesman said Wednesday night.

Murray Cotterill, western representative of the national directors of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO-CCL), said the 720 striking workers will be back on the job within three days at the Dominion Bridge and Manitoba Bridge plants.

Scottish Crowd Boos Witness

EDINBURGH (Reuters) — A crowd of 500 Wednesday mobbed a police reservist whose evidence helped convict four young Nationalists on a charge of illegally possessing explosives.

Earlier, a Scottish jury found the four men innocent of conspiring against the government, but guilty of possessing dynamite. The four—Robert Duncan Watt, 22; Malcolm MacAlister, 24; Owen Gillan, 27, and Raymond Forbes, 23—were each sentenced to one year in jail.

Cullen, principal state witness, claimed to have won the confidence of the quartet and pretended to share in a plot to blow up Saint Andrew's House, government headquarters in Scotland.

The four men claimed they knew all along that Cullen was a police agent and led him on in an effort to expose "Gestapo-like" police methods of curbing Scottish nationalism.

Parley To Study Political Unity

THE HAGUE, Holland (Reuters)—Foreign ministers of the "Little Europe" countries will open their conference here today regardless of the French cabinet crisis caused largely by a split over a united continent.

The conference has been called to discuss proposals for a "political community" of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

But all the delegates feel the need to avoid decisions or statements which might alienate French political parties and thus lessen prospects that France will ratify the European army treaty. This treaty is to bind the same states into a common defense structure.

In view of the cabinet crisis in Paris, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault will not join his five colleagues here. His place will be taken by Alexandre Parodi, secretary-general of the French foreign ministry.

The basis for conference discussions is a report, as yet unpublished, which was drafted by the foreign ministers' deputies in Rome last month.

The deputies' report is on a draft constitution for the political community, worked out by legislators from the six countries concerned. The constitution envisaged a six-power executive committee or cabinet with real but limited powers, a European parliament and a watch-dog committee of national cabinet ministers.
